MAKING INROADS TO BUSINESS PLAN

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

PLANS to build an access road at the site of a proposed £9million development in Seaton have just been validated by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

In March, Pulman's View exclusively revealed that Barkley Park Cedar Ltd had submitted plans to the district council to create a Business Development Unit at land close to the Harepath Road area of the town.

The unit will be home to office suites available for long and short-term rent.

The application for an access road at the site was validated by EDDC on Tuesday, May 11th, and would provide the first stage of the multimillion pound development if it is given the go-ahead.

A decision is expected within the near future.

Joseph Marchant, of Context Logic Ltd, the agent acting on behalf of Barkley Park Cedar Ltd, said: "A planning application for highways access has just been submitted as part of a short term aspiration to make a future application to bring forward the allocated employment site off Harepath Road.

"This site has the scope to considerably expand employment opportunities in Seaton to strengthen and diversify the town's economy."

There has been a mixed reaction to the plans from members of the public with some claiming the scheme would be a waste of money and others saying it would be a boost for the town.

The Seaton Development Trust has given its support to the plans.

However, Seaton and District Chamber of Commerce has not yet decided if it will back the development.

Mr Marchant added that he was hopeful the application would receive the thumbs up.

He said: "Approval of this application would pave the way for an application for the Business Development Unit and other employment uses that members of the community and local authority would be able to become engaged in and influence in a manner that may prove to offer the town a very attractive package that has the capacity to be both social and economically enriching."

Warning for fast drivers

POLICE in Seaton carried out speed checks at the Bunts Lane and Harepath Road areas of the town on Wednesday, May 12th.

According to officers speeding has been identified by members of the public as one of their PACT priorities.

Figures released by police show that 12 vehicles were travelling in excess of the 20mph limit in Bunts Lane and 23 vehicles were spotted exceeding the 30mph limit in Harepath Road.

A spokesman for Seaton police said: "Vehicles caught travelling in excess of the speed limit will receive a warning letter through the post and the vehicles' details will be added to the police database.

"If they are caught speeding again, further action will be taken.

"The main purpose of these speed check days is to educate and warn drivers who commit offences."

Seat is held by Lib Dem

THE Liberal Democrats held the Seaton seat on East Devon District Council when Peter Burrows won a by-election on Thursday, May 6th.

Mr Burrows' fellow Liberal Democrat, Margaret Rogers, retired in March, making the seat vacant.

The count was made the day after the by-election and Mr Burrows gained 2,414 votes, ahead of the Conservative Party candidate, John Meakin, on 1,795.

The turnout for the by-election was 70.78 per cent.

Mr Burrows was previously a member of EDDC from 2003 to 2007, during which time he served on a number of committees, including as chairman of the Scrutiny Committee.

Crime figures on the up for month

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

CRIME in Colyton has increased according to monthly figures released by Seaton police.

Five incidents took place in Colyton last month, compared to only two in March.

On Sunday, April 4th, a youth pushing a moped caused damage to a parked vehicle. The youth has been identified and police have said he will be dealt with in due course.

Overnight between Saturday and Sunday, April 17th and 18th, a car was stolen from the Dolphin Street car park. The car was later found nearby.

A public order offence was reported to police on Thursday, April 22nd. During the incident a man verbally abused a motorist who had parked in The Butts.

Two incidents took place on Saturday, April 24th. An attempt was made to remove lead flashing from a residential property in The Butts and a chainsaw was stolen from an outbuilding in Colyford.

Four offences took place in Beer last month. On Sunday, April 4th, a woman on Beer beach had her handbag stolen.

Criminal damage was caused to play equipment in Mare Lane on Thursday, April 15th. Police say that a 15-year-old has admitted causing the damage.

A tawny owl was found shot dead in a field on the outskirts of Beer. Police believe the incident took place overnight between Thursday and Friday, April 22nd and 23rd. Enquiries are ongoing.

A Landrover Discovery had its panels scratched whilst parked in Dolphin Road on Monday, April 26th.

Branscombe was also the scene of four offences in April.

An outbuilding was broken into and a strimmer, leaf blower and spade were stolen. An exact date is not known for the offence but police believe it was sometime in early April.

Sometime between Wednesday, April 7th, and Wednesday, April 28th, a quantity of heating oil was stolen from an outdoor tank.

On Monday, April 26th, a public order offence occurred when a vehicle drove onto a private driveway and the driver threatened to cause damage to the property.

Sea Shanty car park was the scene of arson on Thursday, April 29th. The occupants of a car were seen to set light to a waste bin in the car park.

According to the figures residents in Axmouth, Farway, Northleigh, Rousdon and Combyne and Southleigh had a peaceful month with no incidents reported to police.

A spokesman for Seaton police said: "The April crime figures continue to be below the long term average which is 24 crimes and is the lowest April total since at least 2004. In fact, every month this year has been below the long term average.

"If you have any information on any of the crimes please get in touch with Seaton police."

Contact Seaton police on 08452 777 444 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Tag rugby team gets new kits donation

YOUNG tag rugby fans in Seaton have been given a helping hand by the town's Phoenix organisation.

Seaton Phoenix has recently donated tag rugby belts, ties and balls to the Seaton Tag Rugby Group.

Rob Woodhouse, who set up the group three years ago and runs the sessions on a Saturday morning, said: "We are very grateful to Seaton Phoenix for donating the kit. The balls and the belts will really help our training sessions, allowing us to increase the handling and tagging skills and increase tactical awareness.

"The kids seem to love the sessions and it is fantastic that Seaton Phoenix support groups like this. If there are any youngsters in Seaton aged between nine and 11 who would like to join us come along to the car park at Seaton Primary School at 9.30am on Saturdays."

June Meakin, of Seaton Phoenix said: "Seaton Phoenix are very pleased to be able to support such activities. It's great to see the children having fun."

PCSO Chris Bolslover, of Seaton police, has recently become involved with the group.

He said: "Rugby is a great team sport and tag rugby is brilliant for children. Not only it great fun, it benefits the children's health, develops their physical and social skills and helps to increase self confidence and self esteem."

"They inspected the area to ensure it was safe before leaving."

NHS to confirm dates to discuss unit changes

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@hindlenews.co.uk

NHS Devon has confirmed it is working with Honiton Town Council to arrange a public meeting to discuss proposed changes at the maternity unit at Honiton Community Hospital.

At the time of going to press a spokesman for the council said they were finalising a date for the event, possible dates that have been pencilled in include Saturday, May 29th or Saturday, June 26th.

Last week the Pulman's View reported how health bosses said they were 'looking forward' to discussing potential changes to the maternity services offered in Honiton and now NHS Devon has said it is hopeful a public meeting will take place in June.

A spokesman said: "NHS Devon and Honiton Town Council are working together to arrange a public meeting, to be held in June, on the proposed maternity changes.

"NHS Devon will be explaining the proposals at a range of meetings and events, beginning the week of May 24th.

"We look forward to having the opportunity to explain the proposals in more detail, and particularly want to hear the views of parents and parents-to-be."

A meeting organised by Honiton Town Council and local campaigners had been scheduled to take place on Saturday, May 15th but was cancelled after health authority representatives declined an invitation to attend.

NHS Devon has faced a huge public backlash after it revealed its plans to potentially cut the maternity services offered at Honiton Community Hospital.

A protest and petition signing against the proposed changes took place on the streets of Honiton on Saturday, March 20th. Hundreds of people put their name on the petition that was handed to NHS bosses.

A demonstration was held outside the East Devon District Council headquarters in Sidmouth on Monday, March 30th. A meeting of the East Devon Locality County Committee was taking place inside the building as dozens of protesters, some with young children, rallied outside.

Then on Friday, April 16th a public meeting organised by Honiton Town Council went ahead despite NHS Devon representatives pulling out. A packed audience at the Mackarness Hall heard from parents and parents-to-be during the two hour public meeting. Everyone who spoke criticised the proposed changes. Local GPs and a representative from the Exeter and East Devon branch of the National Childbirth Trust were also present and spoke out against the NHS Devon proposals.

NHS Devon said it could not attend the event because the election had been called and Department of Health guidance did not permit them to take part in consultation events during the election period.

However, candidates for the three main political parties attended and all three blasted the proposed changes.

More than 4,000 people have signed up to a Facebook campaign against the proposed cuts to the maternity services. The proposals could also affect hospitals in Okehampton and Tiverton.

Drug warrant gets executed

A MISUSE of Drugs Act warrant was executed by police in Cherry Tree Road, Axminster, at about 8.45am on Friday, May 14th.

Police said a quantity of suspected drugs were located at the address and a male was arrested.

He was taken into custody for interview and a charging decision.

A police spokesperson said: "The police will and do act on information provided by the public.

"The public can pass information to either an officer, via the 08452 777444 number or the Crimestoppers number, 0800 55511."

'Valuables' are stolen

VARIOUS "valuables" were stolen from a house in Lear Lane, Axminster, during a burglary at some point between 8pm on Saturday, May 15th and 5pm the following day.

Anyone with information is asked to call 08452 777 444 and ask for Axminster police. The crime reference number is KA/10/260.

Man cautioned for possession

A 24-YEAR-OLD male was given a police caution after he was found to be in possession of a small amount of cannabis.

The drug was found during a stop search by police on a street in Axminster in the evening of Saturday, May 1st.

◆ SOME of the alcohol confiscated by police in Seaton in recent weeks

Underage problem

POLICE in Seaton say they have seized a large amount of alcohol from underage drinkers in recent weeks.

According to figures released by police in the town a large group of underage youths was found at the back of Couchill Lane with bottles of alcohol on Saturday, April 17th.

The alcohol was seized and parents were called to collect some of the youngsters.

On Friday, April 23rd youngsters were found with alcohol in Seaford Gardens.

Then on Saturday, April 24th alcohol was found with a group of underage drinkers near Cliff Field Gardens and on the beach.

A spokesman for Seaton police said: "We will continue to target underage drinking in the coming weeks and will be regularly patrolling all known problem areas."

TEENAGER Ben Matthews will have his work cut out as he embarks on a mission to cycle across Canada.

The former Colyton Grammar School student is no stranger to physical challenges as he is a member of Honiton-based N1 Triathlon Club and harbours an ambition to join the Royal Marines after university.

He is undergoing a gruelling training regime to be as prepared as possible for whatever Canada throws at him.

When speaking to Pulman's View last Friday morning, for example, it wasn't straightforward to organise a photo shoot as he was about to go for a four and a half hour cycle session before going swimming.

Ben, 19, lives in Alifington, near Ottery St Mary, and hopes his adventure will raise at least £10,000 for Help for Heroes.

He will leave the UK on Friday, May 28th and hopes to cover the vast distance in three months - and he can't really afford to stay much longer as university awaits in September.

Ben said: "I am currently on my gap year before going to read human biology at Loughborough University and joining the Royal Marines thereafter.

"For the last 10 months I have worked in Millstone Bakery in Ottery to earn enough money to cycle solo and unsupported across Canada - from Vancouver on the west coast, to Halifax on the east coast.

"This will involve 7,000 kilometres of cycling in three months, averaging over 80 kilometres per day.

"This is all to raise money for Help for Heroes, a charity which provides practical, direct support to injured men and women of the armed forces.

"My target is to have raised £10,000 by the time I return from Canada on August 31st."

His adventure will be based on those of adventurer Mark Beaumont who has circumnavigated the world on bicycle and recently featured in The Man Who Cycled the Americas on BBC1.

Some of the nights will be spent with host families along the route, but Ben will bring camping equipment and realises there will be nights when he has to sleep next to a road — just like Mr Beaumont did.

The obvious question is, why Canada? Ben explained that he lived in Halifax for two years when his dad, Stuart, was on a naval exchange.

The family left when Ben was eight and he is looking forward to meeting friends of the family when he crosses the finishing line.

When asked if his parents, Debbie and Stuart, are worried or fully behind him, he said: "A bit of both.

"They are behind me and getting excited but they obviously also do the parental thing of being nervous.

"But they are confident I can do it."

To donate, please go to www.justgiving.com/benstranscanada.

Charity ride raises £430

THE organisers of the recent West Hill Preschool sponsored bike ride say the event has so far raised £430 for local charities.

The funds were made through sales of tea, coffee, cakes and a raffle draw. More donations are expected to be made within the next week.

An anniversary show

THE Branscombe Charity Air and Classic Car Show celebrates its 21st anniversary this year and the organisers are promising a spectacular event.

The event regularly attracts more than 10,000 visitors and this year it will take place on Sunday, July 25th from 11am.

This year's show will be a special tribute to mark the 65th anniversary of the ending of the Second World War in Europe.

Airfield owner and event organiser, David Hayman, said: "Once again, we are hoping to make substantial donations to a number of good causes, especially the Royal British Legion and Children's Hospice South West.

"We'll also be supporting our village primary school and preschool playgroup.

"We are again expecting up to 50 visiting aircraft to land at Branscombe."

The charity show has raised more than £100,000 for good causes over the last 21 years.

A car boot sale will also take place. For more information contact 01297 680706.

Centre holds Olympic day for local kids

CLOAKHAM Lawn Sports Centre will be turned into an 'Olympic stadium' on Bank Holiday Monday, May 31st.

The sport centre and Axe Valley Community College have joined forces to stage Axe Valley Olympic Day for youngsters in the area.

Millwey Rise FC is also involved as the club will run the day's football tournament.

Entry forms have been circulated to schools in the area, but children are welcome to enter their own set-ups for the team sports.

Andrew Moulding of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre said: "We are a local outdoor sports centre and we hope the event will excite people and kick-start the excitement of the 2012 Olympics.

"It will be low key this year, we'll have another event in 2011 and a bumper one in 2012."

Disciplines include standing long-jump, foam javelin, running, cricket ball throwing, basketball shoot-out, six-a-side football and more.

Organisers have a contingency plan for wet weather and have a limited indoor programme of events on stand-by.

Refreshments will be available throughout the day, and a disco will round it all off.

Mr Moulding predicted the Olympic day will predominantly attract Year 3 to Year 8 children - but all ages are welcome.

To register a team or to find out more, contact Mr Moulding on 01297 553 865 or e-mail andrew.moulding2008@btinternet.co.uk.

BEVISS & BECKINGSALE SOLICITORS

Karen-Lee Curtis a solicitor in the firm's family department says :- "It has become a common belief in England and Wales that you can now obtain a 'quickie divorce'; this is mainly due to increased media attention in 'celebrity breakups'. It is not uncommon to see newspaper headlines claiming that celebrity couples divorce in a matter of minutes: 'The three-year marriage of Katie Price - also known as Jordan - and Peter Andre came to an end in just over a minute at London's High Court,' as reported by the Telegraph on the 8th September 2009.

Unfortunately speed and the Courts rarely go hand in hand, even the quickest divorce is likely to take more than two months due to the fact that various formalities must occur to enable the divorce to take place. In particular, for most cases, six weeks must elapse between the pronouncement of the Decree Nisi in Court (the first formal stage of the divorce) and the Decree Absolute. You are not legally divorced until Decree Absolute has been granted.

In the above example of Katie Price and Peter Andre, the newspaper implies that their marriage was dissolved in just over one minute. In fact, the newspaper is only referring to one aspect of the divorce namely the pronouncement of the Decree Nisi. They would not actually have been divorced until Decree Absolute was obtained.

Once you involve children and financial issues, the divorce process can take longer as such issues can become complicated and take time to resolve.

However, there are ways to expedite the process:

- Take good legal advice at an early stage. This will then ensure you are fully informed as to all the options available to you and enable you to make decisions. For example, depending on your personal circumstances, divorce may not necessarily be the best option;

- Collate together the details of your financial position. This is particularly important if during your marriage you have not actively dealt with the finances. It will also enable your solicitor to advise you on whether any financial settlement you tentatively reach with your spouse is fair and reasonable;

- Consider attending mediation with your spouse as a way of talking through and agreeing upon difficult areas such as issues relating to the children or finances with the assistance of an independent professional; and

- If possible, try and remain amicable with your spouse as this will undoubtedly assist in resolving any issues which arise."

If you are experiencing relationship difficulties and wish to discuss Separation or Divorce and how it may affect you then please contact Karen-Lee Curtis or Zoe Gaitskell on 01404 548050 who will be happy to advise you on your position.

Karen-Lee Curtis, Solicitor.

New bus times to make public travel simpler

By BEN MIDDLETON
Ben@lindlenews.co.uk

RESIDENTS and visitors to Pulman's View country could now find it easier to travel across the district using the bus.

A new summer bus timetable guide has just been produced for areas across east Devon including Axminster, Colyton, Honiton, Ottery St Mary and Seaton.

Stuart Hughes, Devon County

Council cabinet member for Highways and Transportation said: "These guides provide comprehensive information not only of the bus services, but all the tickets and bus routes.

"They are invaluable for anyone planning to use public transport across the county, either for their commute or a day out in Devon."

There is also a new summer timetable for the Coastline X53 service between Exeter, Seaton, Lyme Regis, Bridport, Abbotsbury and Weymouth.

The X53 service is now offering extra journeys for the peak summer period. It will operate seven days a week, with buses running every two hours, including Bank Holidays. It is financially supported by Devon and Dorset County Councils.

All of the new timetables are available from a variety of outlets including tourist information centres, bus company offices, post offices and libraries.

◆ AXMINSTER police took a group of youths to walk up Snowdon in north Wales, and they are pictured as they left Axminster on Saturday, May 8th. See next week's issue for full report

Sight charity for the young seeking help

A HONITON charity is on the lookout for volunteers to help out during the summer months.

SeeAbility provides specialist accommodation-based domiciliary care and supported living services to young visually impaired adults with additional disabilities. It is based at Windmill Court, just off Kings Road in Honiton.

A spokesman for the charity said: "Formerly The Royal School for the Blind, our purpose is to enable people to achieve their full potential, realise opportunities, make choices and enhance their quality of life.

"We're now looking for other enthusiastic members of the community with a little time to spare each week to come and join our team of volunteers.

"In addition to tidying our garden, other activities the residents are hoping to enjoy this summer are swimming, horse riding, cooking, boating and photography.

"Any help with these pursuits would be welcome. Or, if anyone has time to spare for other things such as chatting, reading with the young people living here or some local driving, we would be most grateful."

For more information about becoming a volunteer contact 01404 46926 or email s.warner@seeability.org.

Stickers to boost lights

AN east Devon town's Christmas lights display is to benefit from a venture involving waste bin stickers.

Axminster Chamber of Commerce chairman Shane Morgan was approached by town resident Graham Cawthorne who runs a scheme providing identification stickers for waste and recycling bins.

Axminster Printing was also approached and a scheme is now up and running, from which the chamber's Christmas lights appeal will get a cut.

A set of three stickers, which enables householders to identify their bins, are available at a cost ranging from £6.25 to £6.95 depending on style.

For each set sold, the chamber's Christmas lights appeal receives £1.50.

There are also identical schemes aiding Axminster Primary School and Axe Valley Community College.

Leaflets for all three schemes have been circulated to shops in the town and will also be delivered to homes in Musbury and Kilmington as well as selected areas of Axminster.

Mr Morgan said: "This initiative not only makes the streets look tidier, it also has a very positive result in making Christmas in Axminster a more magical time for everyone."

Car bumper stickers are also available as part of the initiative.

Tractors trundle for cash

TRACTORS descended on the roads around Chardstock for the village's tractor trundle on Monday, May 3rd.

Forty drivers took part and were cheered on by friends and families as they made their way from Chardstock and back through Tatworth, Forton, Winsham, Thorncombe and Hawkchurch.

The procession was led by Warren Fowler on a Field Marshall and £400 was raised for charity.

Chardstock Tractor Trundle secretary Jan Bond said: "Thank you to everyone for their support, including the tractor drivers."

Ofsted praises school's rapid improvement

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

AN east Devon primary school has been praised by Ofsted inspectors for its rapid improvement.

Inspectors spent time at the 31-pupil Broadhembury Church of England Primary School, near Honiton, last month and the report has just been released.

In the report Ofsted inspectors praised the leadership at the school and the support offered by staff and governors to pupils and parents.

Lead inspector Rowena Onions said: "Much productive work has been done to improve pupils' attitudes to school and to their work."

"Parents comment on how much their children like the school. This is demonstrated by the number of them who run enthusiastically into the school yard at the beginning of the day."

"Pupils' enthusiasm is successfully promoted by enrichment activities and teachers' efforts to make learning active and fun."

Broadhembury headteacher, Gaye Williams, who was appointed to the post in April 2009, said: "I am pleased with the outcomes, which accurately reflect the school's journey and the hard work and dedication of the staff team and the governing body."

"We are delighted the inspector has recognised the many positive aspects of our distinctive school community."

"As a school community we look forward to an exciting period of further development. The areas identified by the report are ones that the school has already prioritised. We will continue to work with the whole school community, the local authority and external consultants to ensure that our vision is realised."

"I would like to thank everyone. Staff, governors and children for all their hard work in contributing to making our school a very special place and to parents for their continued support."

"The inspector's interactions and observations of the children throughout the whole process clearly had a very strong influence regarding her very positive judgements about the school."

"I would therefore like to say a very special thank you to all the children who, as usual, did us proud."

However, there is always room for improvement and Mrs Onions said in order for the school to continue its rapid progress it should develop the assessment of pupils' work so teachers and teaching assistants can help them improve and broaden the children's knowledge of other cultures.

Wild West-country

THIS is the Westcountry, not the Wild, Wild, West-country — so pistol-toting and gun-slinging are not usual habits of the area.

Shotguns, yes. Shootin', fishin', huntin', yes. But that's about as far as it normally goes.

Not so anymore. The sport of shooting is about to be opened up to the area in a high safety new indoor venue in Pulman's Country.

The Target Sports Centre, set up by local businessman Richard Clist, is aiming to provide top facilities in the Westcountry for the sport of target shooting.

But where would one set up such a noisy sport as this? Well, it all started when Richard bought The Charmouth Tunnel back in 2004. The tunnel, built in 1831, sat redundant after the by-pass was formed until Mr Clist purchased it and decided it would be a perfect venue for a shooting range. Situated just outside of Axminster, on the A35 towards Charmouth, the tunnel will now be home to this new sporting facility — the perfect place to keep the sound of shots hidden.

I was lucky enough to be invited to the old tunnel with the purpose to meet with owner Richard and to have a nose around the place to see what it is all about.

Admittedly, my knowledge of shooting is about as advanced as my knowledge of aerodynamics, so I was keen to get a bit more info.

Although I knew the venue was the old tunnel, I had a vision in my mind of what a shooting range would be like. Having never seen or visited one before, I think I may have been forgiven for my initial thoughts.

The image I had in my mind was of a large open-fronted shed-like building with some target boards at the other end of a field. This is not what I found.

On arrival, I was faced with one end of an ordinary road tunnel, however, this one had glistening glass doors and windows fronting it. On the inside, there was a complex design of a new family-friendly facility getting ready to open its doors to the public.

As Richard took me on a tour of this extraordinary hideaway, I discovered that it was far from the stuffy members-only gun club I assumed it would be.

It seems that anyone can have a go, you don't even have to be a member of the club. You can pay as little as £15 to go and give it a try and to learn something new. Anyone any age — even children from as young as six — can go and experience this exhilarating sport.

You may think that the last thing you want your young child to hold in their hand is a gun but it goes much deeper as a sport than it may appear from the outside.

Shooting is, like many other sports, an excellent way to learn discipline, but it is also a sport which offers the lesson of responsibility. With the very highest in safety standards, the Target Sports Centre will offer two ranges — one at 25 metres and one at 50 metres — for those interested in shooting whether they would like to become a member or just try it for the day.

Richard hopes the police will be among organisations to make use of the facility which will hold National Rifle Association competitions as well as coaching from some top professionals who have been hand-picked.

Far from a modern pastime, shooting is an Olympic sport and was one of the sports on the programme of the first modern Olympic Games in Athens in 1896. It is a growing discipline today and Richard has high hopes that the new hi-tech centre will provide training facilities for the 2012 Olympics.

Richard said: "With support from Lloyds TSB, the world-class shooting venue will also offer a club café, a club shop including an armoury, training facilities with range safety officers, and an observation area. And it will also create new jobs in the area."

"We are resetting the standard of shooting ranges, bringing something completely new to the area. We have very strict protocols on safety within all aspects of the club."

It's hard not to be utterly impressed by this new feature in our community which is on target to be completed within a matter of weeks. Not only is it offering a fantastic sport to the area, bringing in business and providing jobs, but is also making use of an otherwise redundant but perfectly usable building.

And I'm pretty sure that not every shooting range is adorned with Axminster Carpets!

No stamp on Post Office letter shock

EYEBROWS were raised when a letter for Pulman's View (DDS Series of Newspapers) was collected recently.

The post that day included a paper slip saying there was a letter to collect at the sorting office.

It transpired that the sender had not put a stamp on, so a total charge of £1.32 (including a £1 handling fee) was required for the letter's release.

A staff member was despatched and couldn't believe his eyes when he saw that the letter had been sent by erm.....The Post Office.

"They, of all people, should know how to put a stamp on," he complained.

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

A COMPANY that moved from Chard to Axminster only a few weeks ago is already reaping the benefits of larger premises.

Air Control Industries (ACI) had outgrown its home of 42 years and decided to relocate to Axminster.

The company is a leading manufacturer of industrial fans, blowers and air knife surface drying systems.

The decision was announced last autumn after the company, which employs about 45 people, had looked around the Somerset and Devon area for suitable premises.

ACI started to refit the premises, previously occupied by Villager Stoves on the Millwey estate, in January and MD Paul Tuffin said: "We are delighted that we finally found a suitable factory within five miles of our current location."

"We also looked further away, like Wellington, which would have been more disruptive to the workforce."

"The new site has plenty of scope for future growth and has excellent access for the large articulated vehicles."

He looked through the office window at the open fields and said: "The setting here is beautiful."

He explained that production was stopped in Chard on Thursday, April 29th and the company was back to full capacity the following Wednesday.

"We are very pleased with that," Mr Tuffin said.

But the move wasn't without a hitch or two. On the day the machinery was moved, traffic was slowed by an overturned truck, road works and a malfunctioning set of traffic lights along the route.

Mr Tuffin recalled the day and said: "We were thinking that somebody up there was not wanting us to be successful in this move."

"But it didn't dampen our spirits." Another company, Uffculme-based Thermal Engineering Systems (TES), comes under the ACI umbrella - and it has been decided to bring across the fabrication side to Axminster.

TES has won a large order and the increased space in Axminster allows the company to bid for 'bigger' work and, as a result, two or three people with the required skills will be recruited for the company in the near future.

Store to step back in time

AN Axminster department store will bring customers back in time with a Second World War memorabilia exhibition.

Trinity House Home-in-Style has borrowed an extensive collection from an unnamed local collector and the exhibition will open on Saturday, June 5th.

In addition, food like spam sandwiches and bread pudding will also be available.

Store manager Mark Hankey said it is an opportunity for anyone interested to find out more about World War II and make a contribution to charity.

He added: "The exhibition is free to view but we hope that people will support the two charities we have chosen to donate to, namely Help for Heroes and The Royal British Legion."

The last day of the exhibition is June 26th.

Artist Lynda talks media

ON Wednesday, April 21st, Axminster Art Society was given a demonstration by local artist Lynda White on the subject of Landscapes in Mixed Media.

Lynda worked on board already primed with gesso and lightly painted a pinkish colour.

After drawing an outline in white pencil of the land and seascape, she explained how she started the picture with oil pastels. With these she drew in lots of white and yellow blossoms on trees with some green colouring for the main parts of the trees.

Lynda then used acrylic ink in various colours: cobalt blue and white for the sky, olive green for some land masses and indigo for shadows.

The white patches of oil pastel had a masking effect where they had been applied earlier.

The 37 members and friends who were present were fascinated to see what a lovely picture Lynda was able to produce using a combination of oil pastels and acrylic inks as this method of painting was quite new to most members, they thought they had better try it.

On Wednesday, May 19th, the society will have its Presidents' Critique, judging pictures the Art Society's members produce.

Visitors are most welcome to this informative meeting.

Lynda White will be taking the workshop, Mixing it with the Media, on May 22nd and for more information please contact Rita on 01297 442266.

Trip around British Isles

AT the April meeting of Thorncombe Rail Activities Club, Peter Lugg gave a very entertaining talk under the title of A Magical Mystery Tour, in which he took members on a trip around the British Isles visiting a large variety of railways.

Peter worked for the railways all his working life, starting in 1946 with Great Western and after nationalization moved around the country enabling him to take pictures in all sorts of locations including spectacular views from different parts of the Forth Bridge, both above and below the tracks.

He then took members on a trip to the Isle of Man Railways and a visit to the peat railways of Southern Ireland.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, May 19th when Bob Alderman will be telling the group about Tornado, Completed and Working and illustrating it with a Powerpoint presentation.

The meeting starts at 7.30pm in Thorncombe Village Hall. Refreshments will be available. Non-members are welcome but a small charge is made.

Mary Rose speaker dressed as a Tudor

WHEN the speaker at the May meeting of Axminster Proboscis Club appeared in Tudor clothing it was obvious that the talk would be of an historical nature and so the title The Mary Rose — Past, Present and Future was entirely appropriate.

Bill Moore had spent much of his time in the 1970s as a volunteer diver on the vessel and has been involved with the recovery and conservation ever since.

The Mary Rose sank without firing a shot whilst facing the French fleet in the approaches to Portsmouth harbour.

Many theories have been advanced as to the cause. Certainly the ship was heavily overloaded and when the ship was put about with the gun ports open she heeled to the extent that water flooded in.

The wind at the time was very light and the French were unable to manoeuvre so had sent in rowed gun boats. Bill thought it highly possible that one of these had struck on the waterline with a cannon ball.

Whatever the cause the vessel sank very rapidly in 1545 with severe loss of life and much of the structure decayed.

The starboard side covered in mud and protected by crustaceous growth survived.

The hull was discovered in 1836 by use of primitive diving techniques but abandoned when little was recovered. It was not until 1965 that work resumed with work starting to a defined plan in 1971 leading to the recovery of the remains in 1982.

In all some 600 volunteer divers worked on the project. Since then there has been ongoing conservation of the hull and the thousands of artefacts.

Bill, who had started his career as a carpenter showed a selection of replicas of salvaged items, all of which he had made with his own hands. With the numerous illustrations his audience was given a vivid insight into the life of a mariner of the times.

A new museum is to be built in time for the opening of the Olympics and will show the remains and tell the story of epic times in British history together with the tragedy which is so often a feature of life at sea.

A visit is now being planned by the club.

Lions thank choc helpers

AXMINSTER and District Lions Club would like to thank everyone for supporting the egg and bunny raffle.

Thanks to the following: Axe Vale Social Club, Bay Hotel, Castle Inn, Conservative Club, Lamb Inn, Membury Post Office, Millers Farm, Millwey Post Office, Mole Avon, New Inn Kilminster, Old Inn Hawkechurch, Old Inn Kilminster, Prospect Garage, Raymonds Hill Post Office, Ridgeway Inn, Tytherleigh Arms, Tuckers Arms and Uplyme Post Office.

Lions really appreciated the help of so many businesses for accommodating the large chocolate items — not always convenient, some venues had to go to great lengths to avoid a meltdown. The odd disabled bunny went to a good home!

Although the final total is not available yet, it looks as though around £800 was raised, which will go to many good causes within the area.

Headteacher talks of her experience

ALL Saints and District WI met on Tuesday, May 4th to discuss the new resolution to be sent to the government, to encourage better labelling on food products with clear information concerning country of origin, especially where meat products are concerned. Members all felt this to be very important.

Before the group embarked on this discussion, Christine Hollidge, headteacher of All Saints Primary School, spoke about a very special trip she took to Romania in December 2009. This was actually a prize she won, during a visit to All Saints of the Romanian Children's Choir, and she was very nervous about going but, accompanied by her daughter, she had what turned out to be a life-changing experience.

The Smiles Foundation, which is centred in Chei, was founded by gospel singer Nia Jones and Kevin Hoy. It was all started as a result of meeting a young parentless and homeless boy, and has grown into a wonderful charity working to bring hope and happier conditions to some poverty stricken areas of this very poor but beautiful country.

They visited a wonderful community school, built and funded by Smiles, providing not only education, but also health care and community activities; homeless families being prepared for rehousing; the Gepiu Community project, training families in self-sufficiency; the Family Centre helping to rehabilitate single mothers, and training them to cook; and the gypsy community, also helping them to become better integrated into society.

The whole talk was extremely moving. Mrs Hollidge feels now that everyone should experience something like this at least once in their lifetime.

The next meeting will be held at the All Saints Village Hall on Tuesday, June 1st, at 7pm, when Deborah Pierce will tell the group how Massage is Really, Really Good for You.

Those who just sing in the bath welcome to workshop

EVEN people who normally sing only in the bath, local choir The Sheldon Singers would be pleased to welcome them to a gospel music workshop at St Paul's Church, Honiton, on June 12th.

Following last year's successful jazz workshop, led by Scott Stroman, he returns literally by popular demand, this time to explore the rich vein of gospel music.

The charismatic Scott is a conductor, trombonist, composer, singer and a professor at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama where he has headed their jazz programme for 25 years. He works regularly with the London Symphony Orchestra and will be accompanied at the workshop by the brilliant pianist Andrew Daldorph.

Julie De'Ath Lancaster, Musical Director of the Sheldon Singers, said: "This is an opportunity for anyone who fancies singing to join with us.

"Those interested do not need to read music or be in a choir. Scott is an inspirational teacher and if last year's experience was anything to go by, participants will have a wonderful day."

Further details on the workshop, which costs £12, can be obtained by ringing Mike Jones on 01404-45308.

Musbury Garage Mega Day - Friday 21st May

It is always wonderful to hear about a local business flying high, and Musbury Garage is certainly no exception. Owner Julian Rinaldi has been involved in the family business for years, since his parents bought it in April 1981. Musbury Garage has always had an exceptional reputation when it comes to reliable service. However the business has recently expanded, to take the commitment to serving the local community one step further.

The garage has always been home to a small shop stocked with much needed essentials. However in August 2009 Julian expanded the business to form a larger shop with Spar, the number one name in convenience shopping.

With a dedicated team, managed by Theresa Stockman, the shop is open seven days a week from 7.30am-8pm. The store is packed full of all the essentials and much more, from freshly baked bread, pastries and hot food to local chilled wine, beer and cider. Stock is sourced from local suppliers wherever possible, including Lyme Bay Cider; even the milk is produced in the West Country. Value for money is obviously important, however this doesn't mean that you lose out on quality. Julian and his team make sure that they stock the highest quality produce. Spar always has special offers on, which change all the time so you never know what bargains you might find.

Although the shop has changed and expanded the garage still offers the same reliable service that it always has done. Among the services available are repairs and servicing to all makes of car and commercial vehicles, as well as MOT testing. The garage also specialises in tyres and wheel alignment.

Musbury Garage is also home to Practical Car and Van Rental, with a wide range of vehicles in the nineteen-strong fleet. Anything from small cars, including automatics, plus seven or nine seat people carriers, and a full range of vans right up to Luton vans with tail-lifts, all available at reasonable prices.

A tribute to candidates

EDITOR — I would like to thank everyone who voted for me in the recent General Election when I was elected to be the Conservative Member of Parliament representing the Tiverton and Honiton constituency.

I will always represent the interests of all people in the constituency, regardless of whether they voted for me or not, to the best of my ability.

My thanks to the returning officer for conducting a faultless operation at polling stations, his staff for their professionalism — often under great pressure, due to the high turnout — the police for their presence at the count and my own election team who did all I could have asked for during the campaign.

I would also pay tribute to the other candidates who stood for election in this constituency, who were excellent ambassadors for their respective parties.

Last and by no means least I would like to thank my wife Sue, my children Jonathan and Harriet, family and friends for their unstinting support during this campaign.

Town already too congested without more housing plans

EDITOR — I am very concerned about the impact of the development of Cloakham Lawns if planning consent was to be granted.

Axminster is already seriously congested with traffic and the proposed development of around 400 houses has a potential to generate a further 600 to 700 cars.

This will make the situation much worse, almost certainly causing gridlock at peak times.

Already residents in Chard Road have difficulty in accessing their driveways due to the high volume of traffic.

An even greater concern is the increased danger from traffic to young children attending the primary school in Stony Lane.

There is also a history of near misses with pedestrians and damage to buildings in the town centre, caused by large commercial vehicles having to drive on the pavements and the wrong side of the road, due to the narrow winding road through the town.

It should also be noted that this proposal does not include the construction of a relief road which is so desperately needed.

There is now a short window of opportunity to stop this development.

Anyone wishing to make representations about the planning application should write to The Head of Planning Services, East Devon District Council, Knowle, Sidmouth

EX10 8HL quoting planning application 10/0816/MOUT.

The closing date is Thursday, May 20th.

UKIP votes go up 40 per cent in area

EDITOR — I would personally like to thank everyone who contributed and supported my campaign as the UKIP candidate for east Devon.

UKIP support in the constituency was up more than 40 per cent on the 2005 election.

It was one of the strongest UKIP performances in the country and I am very proud that so many people backed our campaign.

The breakthrough has already been made in the Euro elections with two MEPs in the region and 12 in the country.

Under a new voting system I know many more will have the confidence to vote for what they believe, without fear of a wasted vote.

Not that I concur a vote for UKIP is ever wasted, the only wasted votes are those not cast.

UKIP polled 4,346 votes in east Devon the highest UKIP vote in the UK bar Nigel Farage in Buckingham.

UKIP in east Devon had an 8.2 per cent share of the vote.

Whoever holds the reins of power

we know that our taxes will go up and our services will be cut.

Despite this they still plan to send billions of pounds of British taxpayers' money to Brussels annually.

UKIP will continue to keep this issue in the public domain and will continue to offer the people of Britain the chance to vote against this waste of British taxpayers' money.

Minority or coalition governments are unlikely to run a five year term.

UKIP will be there to represent people who believe that we need to put the interests of Britain before the interests of the bureaucrats of Brussels

Once again many thanks to all those that directly worked tirelessly to help me achieve this tremendous result.

And thank you to all 4,346 of the electorate that believed and wished to voice their opinion.

*Mike Amor
UK Independence Party
Candidate for east Devon*

Call for reform

EDITOR — I'm writing to thank everyone who voted for me in the recent General Election. I'm humbled that over 18,000 fellow residents did so — and very sorry that this time I couldn't repay them by actually winning.

I'd also like to thank the other candidates for a contest which was clean and focussed entirely on the issues, and wish Neil Parish the best for the future as our MP.

I hope he can secure a better deal for Devon than we have had from previous governments.

Once again we have had an election in which a large majority of votes nationwide were wasted — they helped elect no-one. I hope that the new government will act to prevent this happening again, and reform our political system.

That's a change our country desperately needs.

Labour thanks

EDITOR — I want to thank the people in the Tiverton and Honiton constituency who voted for me in the General Election.

The amount of support and encouragement I received was amazing.

I congratulate Neil Parish on being elected. I am sure he will represent the interests of everyone well.

Whilst we differed in policy, all the candidates got on well and I would like to thank them for the fair and honest way they conducted their campaigns.

I pledge that I will continue to serve the people of Honiton as a town councillor.

THE BEST FOR QUALITY AND VALUE IN THE SOUTH WEST

Pulman's View from the churches

With Nigel Speller

PASTOR Darrell Holmes, vice-chair of Axminster Churches Together, Kilmington Baptist Church, speaks up this week.

He said: "Every May, the Baptist Union of Great Britain holds its Annual Assembly. Delegates from across England and Wales gather to share stories and hear news from the Baptist family. This is a family with over 2,000 churches in contact with over 200,000 people and one that continues to grow.

"In 2010, the assembly was in Plymouth and over 1,500 delegates descended on the city over the four-day event. There was talk of sharing the good news with the world, of new ways of "doing church", discussions about the environment, finance, communication via spoken word, film, websites and written words.

"Prayer was offered, praise was sung and said, words were uttered, but listening also took place.

"Decisions were taken not just on local and national affairs, but international affairs too.

"As someone who was there, I came away inspired by the creativity and excitement of being a part of this Baptist family, but also acknowledging that we are also part of a much bigger and even more varied family — the church which spans the world, which includes Anglicans, Baptists, Catholics, Methodists, United Reform Church and many other smaller and independent churches."

Prison Fellowship, through its volunteers, shines God's light in the darkest of places and aims to transform the lives of prisoners and their families. There are many different ways in which volunteers can get involved including praying for a local prison, supporting the chaplaincy, fundraising or taking part in Angel Tree — a programme that provides Christmas presents to children who have one or both parents in prison.

If these sound like the kind of challenges for you, you could join the fellowship. Together we can be God's instruments of change; to offer a message of hope instead of despair, love instead of hatred, light instead of darkness. To find out more email info@prisonfellowship.org.uk or call 01621 843232.

The churchwardens and other parish officers of the Diocese of Exeter have, in recent days, been attending services in their localities known as visitations, in which archdeacons affirm the ministry of the parish officers and hold a visitation court, which is a legal requirement under Canon Law. Churchwardens are admitted to their offices for the ensuing year, and clergy and laity have their ministries affirmed.

Clearly this is a year for elections. The General Synod of the Church of England, described as the church's parliament, elects new members for a three-year term later this year.

The electorate for this are members of the Deanery Synods, and details of the candidates will be coming to deaneries shortly. There will be local hustings attended by the candidates.

In the meantime, in July the present members of the General Synod will meet for the last time before the election.

An important item on this occasion will be the proposed legislation to permit the consecration of women bishops.

It is understood that no provision will be included for the opponents of the proposal.

To succeed, the legislation has to be passed by a simple majority of bishops, clergy and laity. Arrangements are likely to be made to allow traditionalist parishes to opt out of the oversight of a woman bishop.

However, the proposals could also to see the departure of some traditionalists to the Roman Catholic Church.

The month of May sees regular services and events in progress such as coffee mornings. But the Dunkswell Benefice, with its five churches of Luppitt, Sheldon, Upottery and Dunkswell parish and the abbey, is celebrating the commissioning of the Mission Community by Bishop Bob of Crediton on Sunday morning, May 16th at Luppitt.

In addition, the Honiton Mission Community is holding Evensong at Combe Raleigh on Sunday evening, May 23rd.

One of the churches in this Mission Community at Awliscombe could not ring out its bells for a recent festival due to a hairline crack in the headstock of their number two bell. Work is now ensuing to raise funds for the repairs.

Junior brainboxes prepare to take on semi-final quiz

A JUNIOR quiz team from Mrs Ethelston's CE Primary School in Uplyme is looking forward to the semi-finals of the National Inter School Quiz Championships 2009-10 (Southern Area).

Team members Bronnie Powell, Jonathan Steward, Xander Dyer and Fleur Gardner-Wray beat 10 other teams to win a place at the southern area semi-final in Salisbury next month.

Team member Bronnie Powell said: "We won a Quiz Club book and a CD so we have been practising during our lunch hour so that we are more confident for the semi-final."

A school spokesperson explained: "The quiz competitions are hosted by schools across the country and each show is presented by a professional quizmaster, with players using a personal wireless handset to make their answers to 40 multiple choice questions.

"The entire quiz is projected to a huge screen, making it thrilling entertainment for both the teams and their supporters."

Town Clerk Writes ...

Winter has finally given way to Spring and as I write daffodils are bursting into flower and the town is starting have some colour again. It's been a long hard winter and not just in the weather department. Everyone has felt the pinch this winter and that includes the Town Council. By now you will have received your Council Tax demand and I hope you have noticed the Town Council's precept has stayed at the same level as last year. We all have to tighten our belts!

As many of you already know, Chard Town Council is not entering the South-West in Bloom competition this year. This is for a number of reasons. It does mean the Spring bulbs and wallflowers can run their natural course without being lifted prematurely to make way for summer bedding in readiness for the early July judging that always dominated the Amenities Department's calendar. I am confident Chard will look its normal resplendent self during the summer and hopefully many traders will purchase hanging baskets to add to the colour and visual aspect of the town.

The Council's reception facility in the Guildhall continues to grow in popularity and we are pleased to welcome Kim Provse from Age Concern – Somerset, who joins us on Friday mornings to help answer your questions and sign-post you to the relevant agency. Sadly, Avon & Somerset Police are no longer able to fill their Thursday afternoon slot but we hope to resurrect their presence soon.

Part of bringing the Council closer to you is providing the reception facility on five and a half days each week, but it also now means you can approach me and my senior officers much easier than ever before. I take a regular Tuesday slot from 9.00 - 11.00am. Sarah Robson, Deputy Town Clerk, takes the Thursday afternoon slot from 3.00 - 5.00pm. No appointments are necessary – just call in and we shall be pleased to assist you. Enjoy Spring - and here's to a glorious summer!

John Furze MILCH Town Clerk

Fresh Steps Health Trainer can Change your life

Why not come along to the Guildhall on Tuesday or Thursday morning, 9.30am-1.00pm, to meet me, your local NHS Health Trainer, Kate Rew. If you are worried about your weight; or want to be more active; want to stop smoking; reduce your stress and anxiety; build your confidence, reduce alcohol consumption and aren't sure how to achieve this by yourself, I can help encourage and motivate you to do it. Working together, we look at your past history what you have tried, what's worked and what hasn't and together we build a programme which suits your situation and work out a series of small steps that you can take to improve your health.

Often these steps can seem quite minor, like eating a regular breakfast, taking regular exercise or eating a bit more fruit and veg. But taken together over the weeks and months, these steps add up and can make a really positive difference to your life. The service can also offer smokers the support to give up and I have also helped those struggling with alcohol dependency either by supporting them to cut down or signposting them to other local services.

There have been many success stories for the Health Trainer Service. One lady who has greatly benefitted from using the service has lost around half her body weight, she feels terrific – looks terrific and her blood pressure has gone down and she has been able to come off medication. Another man who used the service used to suffer from stress and anxiety has had help with dealing with this, he has since joined a Tai Chi class and feels a lot healthier and more positive about life.

If you are feel you would like the support and encouragement to improve your health in any of the ways mentioned above and that you lack the confidence to tackle any of these issues by yourself, get in touch with me, Kate Rew on 07826 903948 or you can contact the freephone number 0800 412 5502.

Innovative play area design stimulates imagination

The Playbuilder Programme is an initiative funded by the Department for Children, Schools and Families. Somerset County Council was awarded Playbuilder status in April 2008 and subsequently devolved the funding to the District Council. South Somerset District Council decided that part of their capital grant for specific play areas should be devolved to Town and Parish Councils; consequently Chard was fortunate to receive funding for the play area at Jocelyn Park with a match funded grant from the District Council. As a result of this Chard Town Council had funding of £50,000 to spend on this play area. The next step was consultation with local residents and children, which was carried out by Barnardo's.

The children were encouraged to tell us the kind of things they would like to have on the play area and the design was then based on this. A company was then chosen to design the play area from a list of those approved by South Somerset District Council. The company chosen was Swan Paul Partnership Ltd., Landscape architects who were based in Taunton put the contract out to tender and from this Parsons Landscaping were appointed. Swan Paul were also commissioned to administer and project manage the contract and have done an excellent job so far.

All this took several months and the work finally began the first week in March. Luckily the weather stayed dry, apart from a few days, for the next four weeks and progress was rapid. However, with so many Playbuilder projects happening at the same time, manufacturers of play equipment and safety surfacing have been unable to keep up with demand and some of the items ordered for Jocelyn Park took a bit of time before they were delivered nevertheless a small section of the park was opened for the Easter holiday period so children could use the facilities, without the presence of contractors.

Work in progress

Since the work has recommenced three quarters of the Park is now complete and being very well used by the public. Hopefully the remaining equipment will be delivered within the next four weeks which will mean that the work can be completed.

The new play area gives an eclectic mix of the new equipment interspersed with the existing wood and metal with additional rocks, wooden stepping stones. Play areas are not just about play equipment but should also be exciting, stimulate the imagination and give an element of risk through which children learn to recognise and manage personal challenge.

The Mayor Writes ...

The end of my Mayoral year approaches and looking back the year has just flown by. It does not seem five minutes since I was elected by Councillors at the last Annual Town Council meeting just twelve months ago. It has been a privilege to serve this wonderful town and my Consort – my husband and fellow Councillor; Garry and I, thank all of you who have made us so welcome at the many and the various and many events we have attended.

I am pleased to let you know that the finances of the Town Council are in good shape, especially in these troubled and challenging times. Prudent housekeeping and attention to detail has ensured we have finished the year not just within budget but with a small surplus. Achieving this has not been easy but Councillors and Officers have been focused and determined in this task. I am particularly proud of the improved children's play facilities in Jocelyn Park. These have been long overdue, and thanks to some government funding and co-operation from our colleagues in the District Council we have provided facilities that are both exciting and benefiting a prime location within the town. Our staff will do their best to keep the playground clean and tidy but we are regularly finding dog mess, cigarette ends and litter inside the play area. Please help us to help you. The playground is a dog-free area and either use the litter bins provided or preferably take it home. In the coming year we will be applying our efforts to upgrading the playground at Ashcroft – another play location that, in our view, is long overdue for renovation.

We are all delighted that the young people who use the Skate Park at Lower Henson have been successful in receiving lottery funding of £50,000 for improvement of the ramps and facilities. Submitting applications for lottery funding is not easy and takes a huge amount of time and effort. Once again, we see young people working hard to improve facilities and clearly demonstrating that not all young people are hooligans and wastrels. Well done each and every one of you.

On May 10th Councillors will elect a Chairman of Council who will be Mayor for the coming year leading up to the local elections in May 2011. Your Council is a broad cross-section of the town and they all work hard for just one thing – the betterment of Chard. Your support of these efforts makes all the difference and I ask you to please support your representatives as we go forward into another year.

Jill Shortland, Mayor of Chard

Join the Revolution – the Learning Revolution.

Lots of people are doing it in Chard and so could you. Somerset Skills and Learning are busy preparing new learning opportunities for Chard and local residents to start in September. This year courses were held at Holyrood School, The Boden centre, Redstart School and in the Guildhall itself. The new brochure will be available from late June from the Guildhall and the Boden centre. Courses are held at various times during the day, evening and at weekends so there is no excuse for not doing it. The usual Somerset Skills & Learning courses in Arts and Crafts, Computing, Food and Catering, Family History, Modern Foreign Languages, Exercise and Fitness and lots more will be on offer. In addition to this did you know Somerset Skills & Learning have an amazing range of Apprenticeship programmes so you can earn and learn for example in Business and Administration, Hospitality, Childcare and Manufacturing to name but four of currently seventeen areas. Also available are Pre-Apprenticeship programmes or Entry to Employment courses. As well as a range of National Vocational Qualifications in over 25 vocational areas from Accountancy to Youth Work.

Do you have children at school or about to start and want to give them the best possible support. You may want to start this help by "Brushing up on your Literacy or Maths" or joining one of our Family Learning classes organised through your child's school.

Perhaps you are running your own business or just thinking about it but learning Book-keeping will be essential as will a good level of Computing available at well equipped premises. Qualifications in First Aid and Food Safety are also offered regularly throughout the year. Perhaps you have thought about bringing your own hobby or passion to a wider audience through teaching the "Preparing to teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector" (PTLLS) course is for you.

Returning to Learn is a big step and before you start you may like to talk to one of our Learning Advisors who will arrange a 1:1 interview to outline what is involved and how Somerset Skills & Learning can make your return to education successful, these advisors are impartial and will also tell you about all local learning opportunities. Also Somerset Skills and Learning want to make sure our classes are accessible to all and to this end we have Disability Advisors who are there to help support you through your course.

To start your journey you need to take the first step and why not start by visiting Rose Mercer at her regular Guildhall session on Thursday mornings from 9 am – 1 pm or at the Boden centre or just ring 01460 63900.

An Ode to Chard Town Council

Chard Town Council, what can I say?

It is local government at the end of the day.
 What do we do. Who do we think we are?
 Volunteers, everyone,
 both locals and those from afar.

We meet in public each month,
 on a Monday night.
 You're welcome to come, we do not bite!
 We work to rules we did not set
 Our hands are tied; expectations often not met

The cemetery needs more land, for this we will save
 For each and every one of us needs a grave
 The two things in life of which you can be sure
 Death and taxes we deal in, and more.

The Guildhall, dare I mention it?
 A civic building, or a money pit?
 In moving offices more money was spent
 But for ever more we have saved the rent

Our team plant flower beds,
 baskets and mow the grass,
 Clean the roads, pavements and alas
 As well as these, as the day begins
 They also empty doggy bins

Allotments and play areas we also provide
 They must be safe they cannot slide
 We have our duties we must perform
 We take the glory and the scorn

There are some people who would shout
 We are useless, get us out
 But in my 3 years this thing I have learnt
 These people won't get their fingers burnt

So yet again at election time
 We knock on your doors, with teeth that shine
 And beg for your cross against our name
 Please put me back into the political game!

CHARD TOWN COUNCIL MAY 2010

Annual Report

Town Clerk's Annual Report 2010

This report concludes the third year in the Council's four-year term. In 2011 we shall be looking at elections once again, though not National but Local Council Elections. For Officers this is a time when we reflect upon those Councillors whom we have got to know. It's a mixed feeling as it is Councillors who make the decisions – Officers merely advise.

Your Town Councillors are elected democratically by the people. They are not paid and receive no expenses or allowances. Often when they are the subject of abuse and criticism I wonder what it is that drives them to accept this onerous and demanding role. In Human Resource (HR) terms they are in effect Unpaid Employees of the Council and are entitled to receive the same 'duty of care' that a paid employee is entitled to receive. The laws of slander and libel are of cold comfort to the recipients of accusations and innuendo when the perpetrator chooses to hide behind a non-de plume or a fictitious address. Council decisions are taken by Councillors collectively, often after Officer advice, but no single Councillor has any more power, in law, than any other Councillor or Elector. It is when they sit in Council that their power is derived. Difficult decisions have to be made, but one thing is absolutely certain; those decisions are democratically taken by a group of people you have chosen to represent you. The decision(s) may not suit you but they have been made in a democratic manner.

Last year I enthused over the plans for relocating the Council's administration into the Guildhall and providing face-to-face contact with the public on five and a half days a week. Many, including some within the Council, said it would not happen but the doubters have been proved wrong. The Guildhall is no longer that 'black hole' where Chardians can only look through the glass doors – those same glass doors are now open seven days a week with a Reception facility manned by Council staff for forty-four hours a week spread over six days. On many days of the week we are joined by staff and volunteers from other agencies who, like the Council employees, are available to the public for advice and help.

This relocation, together with the installation of telephonic and computer equipment, was achieved within budget from the Council's reserves without one penny being added to your Council Tax bill. Chard Town Council was one of very few authorities to set a 'zero budget' for this coming year. That small portion of your Council Tax bill that comes to this Council is exactly the same as last year and your Councillors should be commended for that. A 'zero budget' is not simply standing still. When a budget is below inflation rate, no matter how low the rate may be, it is in effect going backwards and something has to give. Tightening belts and 'more for less' are common phrases that come to mind but these are always short-term measures that hide the inevitable.

Quite rightly for a town of its size and operation Chard now has a Deputy Town Clerk. This was achieved by merging two posts saving £14,000 in the process – a move criticised, quite vocally by some residents (in the media) as extravagant though they never once complained openly to the Council either at meetings or in the post. The streamlining of processes and operations through this appointment has enabled important savings to be made – and more are planned. I would emphasise this is not a 'fat trimming exercise' – there wasn't any fat to start with! It is merely taking advantage of current market forces and making efficiencies.

If there has been a disappointment in this last year it is that our Amenities Department, ably assisted by the volunteers from the Chard in Bloom Committee, and despite a gargantuan amount of effort did not gain the coveted Gold Award in the South West in Bloom competition. Chard once again had to settle for the Silver Gilt Award – an award that many towns, even some larger than Chard, would give their eye teeth to achieve. At the time of judging – a horribly wet day in July, it was generally agreed by all involved that the standard of judging was poor but of course that just sounds like sour grapes! However, the Council has agreed not to enter the competition for at least this year, and to appraise and consolidate upon our efforts of previous years. That is not to say the town will not look lovely this year – it will, but the bedding plants will be allowed to develop in their own way and in their own time without the pressures of judging day looming in early July. Once again, we hope as many traders as possible will purchase hanging baskets to improve the important visual aspect of the town to encourage more people to shop in Chard.

Partnership Working has been a phrase we have almost pioneered in Chard within the local government sector. This style of working has yielded many advantageous cost-saving facilities for Chard people. Partnering with organisations such as Somerset Waste Partnership and South Somerset District Council has enabled the Council to save a considerable amount of money through efficiency savings. We are all being as creative as possible in looking at ways in which processes can be streamlined to encourage further savings.

For a many years, thanks to the wisdom of previous Councils, Chard has developed the capacity to look after many functions that other towns may only dream about. This proven capacity, coupled with our ability to use the Power of Wellbeing will stand Chard in good stead with the merging of functions between South Somerset District Council and East Devon District Council. Chard Town Council is willing and able to accept delegated functions from these authorities providing 'revenue follows function'. Many of the smaller, more localised activities of the principal authorities can be delivered locally here in Chard and at a lower cost. That has to be good for everyone.

In this coming year the Council has set aside a fund to enable it to award grants to community organisations within the town. Application packs are available and the Council will shortly appoint an evaluation group to assess each application to decide on the level of the award. This is not a 'give-away' task. Applicants need to meet a strict criteria and demonstrate their ability to handle money wisely and in a proper fashion. It will mean that a number of small groups will be able to receive a 'helping hand' to establish themselves and become sustainable faster and more easily.

Chard continues to grow. This is a very lively and active town with plenty going on. Your Council and Officers are totally committed to serving the community and helping it to grow.

John Furze MLCM Town Clerk

Sarah Robson, Deputy Town Clerk

Mayors Annual Report 2010

2010 has been a good year for Chard as a Town, although it may have not been a good year for some – especially those who have lost their jobs, or even their homes, due to the recession.

We need to keep uppermost in our thoughts those, who are struggling due to the economic down turn and those, for whom day to day living has become very challenging.

In Chard we are very fortunate to have some very good and stable employers, like for example, Numatic, where I was honoured to be invited this year to tour their premises. All those Henrys and Hetty's whizzing through production and so many Chard people involved in the "birth" of each one.

I use the word "birth" as I was thrilled when Numatic generously donated a very special May Day Henry for my May Day raffle for my charities. As you read this you may already know how much he has made but considering he is a one in six million Henry it was well deserved.

This was just one example of the generosity of Chard businesses for my Mayoral events this year. Many members of the public and fellow Councillors have also given generously not just financially but also of their time to assist these worthwhile charities. These charities need our support for their research work to bring about a reduction in the incidence of Cancer and further, so that those living with Cancer have their lives improved.

All of this would have been worth nothing without the support of the people of Chard and surrounding areas and my fellow mayors and Chairs of Councils who have enjoyed the many events we have put on this year.

So a big thank you to all those who have volunteered their time and resources to make those events possible and, of course, to those who have dipped into their pockets to raise the money.

Unfortunately I have not been able to make all of my visits this year. Over Christmas I had a dose or two of the Flu and it was not possible, and certainly not advisable, to make the seasonal visits to the Hospital and Care Homes. I was able though to attend several summer fetes which were very enjoyable indeed. To meet residents and talk to them about the Mayoral Regalia was very interesting especially meeting one resident who I am sure must have been related to a past Mayor. Certainly her Great Grand children were excited when they found their family name on the back of one of the links!

I have also been able to attend many AGMs of Chard organisations. Whilst you often see the same faces in different places – especially one Councillor who seems to be part of many organisations, it is humbling to see so many volunteers who clearly give so much time and energy to these groups.

The selfless attitude of these volunteers who help raise money for charity, or help people, or bring enjoyment to others is outstanding. I always knew Chard was a place where many put others before themselves but I had not realised just how many there are making such a difference to Chard.

The Town Councillors this year – like no other year in my time on the Council, have really come together. The team of Councillors have put party politics to one side, to work collectively with the staff to improve the finances, tighten budgets and do things differently to ensure our council tax for Chard Town is not increased. Not only this but also to ensure we are doing everything we can to get the very best value for money from every penny you give us from your hard earned finances.

We have also been determined to work hard to get finances into Chard to support our retail sector. Working together with the District and County Councils we have secured grants to make the Town look better – and more attractive, so that more people come into Chard to do their shopping. When I stood in the Guildhall (this room) at my 'Mayor Making' I tried to encourage everyone to look around Chard and buy locally where they can. I know residents have been trying to do just that but a little more is needed to ensure our shops survive.

If we are to survive this recession all of us need to pull together as a community and our shopkeepers are vital parts of our community.

We can do nothing about the weather and didn't we have our share of it this year? The snow came, and then came again and again! Whilst the children were having fun, and some parents too, it was difficult for many to get around. Some were bound to home and many could not get to work. Inevitably there were some who complained and were persistent and quite vocal in their opinion that the "Council" should do something but there were many who quietly just got on with their lives, helping their neighbours, doing their shopping and fetching the essentials. Once again the 'many' rally around in difficult times and it makes me proud to be Mayor of such a 'caring town' as Chard.

The Council wants to harness that spirit – and resilience, ready for when the bad weather returns, so if you are one of those people who wants to do your bit for your neighbours we want to hear from you.

Our parks in the town continue to improve. Thanks, in part, to some grants from Government passed down through the County and the District to Chard we have a brand new exciting play facility at Jocelyn Park. Ashcroft is next on the list. Improvements, such as these, take time and money but little by little we are getting there.

I wish to thank all my fellow Councillors for their support this year, and my family and friends, and newly made friends who have been helping with my charity events. To the staff, especially Kate who has dealt with my diary and John and Sarah for your patience – thank you! Thanks also to my Deputy, Cathie for her attendance when I can't be in two places at once. Finally, to Garry my consort and husband, who has been my rock, my chauffeur and especially my timekeeper, thanks.

Climate conference for Rhino students

RHINOS Class at St Andrew's Primary School in Chardstock attended a climate change conference at Paignton Zoo.

The conference was staged in April and the school had been invited by Devon Community Council.

The children appeared under the name of The Wacky Weather Watchers, and performed a short play about their interviews with people from the Chardstock area who remembered the snow of 1966.

They also reported on a day spent with staff from the Royal Meteorological Society learning about the weather. The audience was treated to a Blue Peter-style How to Make Rain Gauges presentation and 'Professor' Dean Richards of Rhinos Class informed people about different cloud types and how to use an okta to calculate cloud cover.

Expectations over TB issue

YOU may be relieved to know that I've nothing to say about the General Election result other than to note, with relief, the appointment of Caroline Spelman as Secretary of State for Defra in place of the hopeless Benn.

Caroline, who has had a long connection with country issues and represents Meriden, near Coventry, a constituency with a strong rural interest, has been consistently supportive on a wide range of country issues.

One, she is going to have to deal with firmly and without equivocation is the emotive problem of badgers, TB and cattle, particularly here in the Westcountry. After 13 years of failure to take any action or make decisions by the Labour government, the farming community, which has been so badly corroded by the disease, now expects some positive movement to be taken by way of a cull. It is, of course, a highly divisive issue and I have not the slightest doubt that the pro-badger lobby will already be arming for battle and determined to fend off any attempts to kill badgers.

It is an extremely delicate and difficult situation and one which will require the judgement of a Solomon to resolve. Each side claims to have evidence which either condemns badgers or exonerates them.

However, the only firm evidence against drastic action is the likelihood that a proportion of badgers will avoid being killed and will disperse into areas hitherto free of the disease. Has any progress been made on a vaccine for either cattle or badgers? This issue will, one suspects, test the co-operation of the new coalition government!

Interesting too, to see whether, in due course, the coalition will honour the agreement by both parties to allow a free vote on a decision to repeal the flawed hunting ban. It is a sad fact that the ban has, perversely, caused a huge escalation in the number of foxes being killed and wounded by shooting at night, using lamps and calls. The opponents of hunting have, in fact, been responsible for a substantial increase in the slaughter of foxes.

Horse owners in the south-west may be interested to know that the South West Protected Landscapes Forum (SWPLF), with help from the British Horse Society and the Farming and Wildlife Advisory Group, has produced a new booklet called Horses, the Landscape and you. This publication offers advice and tips to horse owners on good grazing, field boundary and waste management, in addition to advice on design and planning permission for buildings and other developments in National Parks and AONB. You can download it from the SWPLF website or obtain a hard copy from Blackdown Hills AONB, St Ivel House, Hemyock, Cullompton EX15 3SJ.

I note, too, that the Dorset Wildlife Trust and the Kingcombe Environmental Studies Centre (KESC) have joined together in an effort to enhance environmental education and active conservation in Dorset. Both charities have similar aims and while the DWT has expanded its educational work in recent years, the Kingcombe Centre has acquired a national reputation for environmental studies, especially for schools and provides a range of courses dealing with natural history, archaeology, craft and art. Sited within the DWT's Kingcombe Meadows nature reserve, the KESC will continue to offer these courses and at the same time will expand DWT's education programme, particularly with schools.

The KESC educational programme offers day course or week-long activity holidays and the centre is renowned for friendly hospitality, good food and accommodation. If you'd like to know more about the courses on offer, online bookings can be made at www.kingcombe.org.

Stunt cyclist wows pupils at new bike shed opening

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

YOUNGSTERS at Feniton Primary School were treated to a stunt cycle display from stunt cyclist Andrei Burton when he visited the school to open a new cycle shed recently.

The new cycle shed was created with the help of Sustrans who funded most of the project.

Sue Mountjoy, sustainable school travel advisor for mid and east Devon said: "Research suggests that children who walk or cycle to school arrive more alert and ready to learn."

"The school has had a walking bus for many years and has successfully promoted walking to school. I hope that the new bike storage will encourage more children to cycle to school."

A spokesman for the school added: "More than 122 pupils at Feniton Primary School said that they would like to cycle to school when they were old enough, but that road safety and a lack of secure, dry spaces to leave bikes was stopping them."

"This information was collected as part of a survey completed for the school's travel plan that had input from parents, pupils and staff."

"The plan was passed to Sustrans who have funded 80 per cent of the total £4,100 to build the shelter."

100 see Anglo-French concert

AN audience of more than 100 listened to an Anglo-French concert in Axminster's Minster Church earlier this month.

The wind band of Douvres la Delivrande was in town — hosted by members of Axe Vale Orchestra and Axminster Twinning Association.

The concert was given on Saturday, May 8th and Graham Godbeer of Axminster Twinning Association said:

"This was the first visit by the 32 French musicians under the direction of Thierry Anquetil."

"The concert of film music, played by the wind band, included the ever-popular theme from the Pirates of the Caribbean and a classical programme from the Axe Vale Orchestra."

All the players were invited to a reception in the Guildhall organised by the twinning association.

Pitson Farm

Highly desirable seven bedroom property in Colyton

John Wood & Co

A rare opportunity to purchase one of Colyton's fine country houses, extensively but carefully restored and modernised by the vendors and makes a unique, highly desirable property and is suited to a variety of potential uses, including spacious family home or characterful B&B. We believe parts of the property dates back to the late eighteenth Century, with the majority of the building of nineteenth century origin and has part-brick and part-stone elevations under a slate roof.

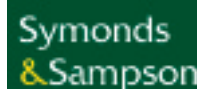

There is a wealth of character throughout, with a number of notable features, including a fine gothic front doorway with Victorian doorbells, a period turning staircase, panel doors, and deep skirting boards throughout.

Improvements by the vendors have been sensitive to the great character of the property, and include a re-fitted country-style kitchen, re-plumbing works including three totally renewed bath/shower rooms, a new boiler, extensive preventative damp proofing, a number of high quality new windows, and internal doors with sympathetic glazing. This exceptional home sits in private, south facing gardens and grounds approaching 0.4 acres. There is ample on-site parking and an outbuilding / garage which was once a smithy, and is currently used as workshop/garage, but could form the basis of a separate annex or holiday cottage, subject to the normal consents.

The ground floor accommodation includes a spacious drawing room directly opening onto a further sitting room, a kitchen/ dining room, a snug or formal dining room, utility room, ground floor WC/shower room and spacious entrance hall. On the first floor there are four bedrooms. The master suite comprises a spacious bedroom, dressing room (or occasional bedroom), and en suite shower/bathroom. There are three additional bedrooms plus a family bathroom and an additional shower room. To the rear of the property is a mature enclosed walled garden, while to the side are outbuildings, garage/workshop and generous on-site parking.

For more details please call John Wood on 01297 20290.

BEER FESTIVAL AT THE OLD INN IS BACK!

THE Old Inn, at Kilmington is holding its third hog roast and beer festival. This year the popular pub is holding two festivals, the other being on the usual August bank holiday weekend. "This looks to be a cracking night", commented Duncan Colvin. "We have a great band lined up and a range of beers from the south west. This year we are also going to be using a log fired hog roast which is always a great spectacle."

With all the guest beers at £2.00 a pint and on a weekend when the local cricket team host their charity twenty twenty matches this looks to be a busy weekend for The Old Inn and Kilmington. For more details contact the pub on 01297 32096 or at their website www.oldinnkilmington.co.uk

WEST END STAR TO TEACH AT COLYTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

ONE of two West End performers from the hit musical Hairspray will be taking a Masterclass at the Back to Broadway Summer School to be held at Colyton Grammar. They are Keisha Atwell who starred as Pearl (Dynamite) and Zara Warren who played the part of Tammy and is now appearing in The Jersey Boys at The Prince Edward Theatre in London.

Following the success of the 2009 Summer School, local company Back to Broadway returns to Colyton Grammar on Monday 9th August-Friday 13th August.

This year the company has obtained the rights to Hairspray and students will be able to look forward to a fun class with either Keisha or Zara who will have many tales to tell of life as a current leading West End performer, as well as some hot tips for their rehearsals of Hairspray!

The week will culminate in the students performance of their version of the hit musical, and will be performed in aid of Children's Hospice South West. This charity is the only organization in the South West providing care for life limited children, and is funded entirely by voluntary donations. So the children from Back to Broadway can feel proud that they are helping children less fortunate than themselves. In 2009 Back to Broadway raised over £10000 for children's hospices across the UK.

Our Course Leaders for 2010 are both highly experienced in the performing arts and extremely popular within the local youth community. Grania Coleman is a teacher of music as well as an accomplished Musical Director. She will be joined by Sophy Layzell who is a director of Taunton's Brewhouse Theatre Drama Schools. Sophy taught for Back to Broadway last summer at Taunton, and is thrilled to be back with us.

A meticulous timetable will ensure the students have a fun week while rehearsing for their end of week performance. Integrated into the rehearsals will be tuition in dance, drama and singing, but with Hairspray, the accent is definitely on 'fun', big wigs and lots of padding!

Back to Broadway are unique in musical theatre schools as the company also produces a touring stage show of Songs from the Musicals featuring West End artists. Children from our summer schools then have the exciting opportunity to appear alongside seasoned musical theatre performers.

Co director Mike Bearcroft said, "we firmly believe that training should be carried out by experienced professionals either from performers or performing arts teachers, to ensure the quality of our teaching. Our classes are for all, not just those seeking a career in the theatre. Everyone can benefit from working together as a team, and the confidence they gain coupled with the skills they learn will stand them in good stead for the future."

Leisure Review

Three of a Kind marks club's 65th anniversary

AXMINSTER Drama Club's arrangements are all now in place for two evenings of drama, laughs and world exclusives to take place at the Guildhall Axminster on Friday, May 28th and Saturday, May 29th.

The evening will start with When The Applause Stops by Eric Fowler which is a comedy set in a home for retired entertainers. Maude, an ex-actress and Bessie, an ex-comedienne have to share a room, they are totally different types and frequently fall out, but following a visit from a granddaughter and daughter, relationships improve, but there is a surprise in store for them both.

Following a supper, which is included in the ticket price of only £6.50, there will then be world exclusives of two two-handers specially written for the club by Axminster's very own Steve Black. One is entitled "Losing It" which will be performed by Sara Leat and Eileen Stuart. The second is entitled "Who's the Mummy" with a mother and daughter role reversal scenario performed by real life mother and daughter Caroline Markham and Josie Cable.

As well as the free supper, refreshments and a bar will be available and this looks like being a most enjoyable and unique evening.

Axminster Drama Club are this year celebrating their 65th year and as well as this production are well into rehearsals for Wizard of Oz which will take place in July and producing an exhibition all about the club which can be seen at The Arts Café during June.

Tickets for Three of a Kind can be purchased from Archway Bookshop (Telephone 01297 33595). There will be no number seating but if you want to book a party table of 10 or more then please call club Chairman Tim Leat on 01297 35187 who will make arrangements for you.

Škoda auto unveils new Greenline Fabia and Moomster models

FOLLOWING the launch of the face-lifted Fabia and Roomster, Škoda Auto has unveiled the Fabia Estate GreenLine II and Roomster GreenLine II – the first of its second generation of environmentally-friendly GreenLine models.

The new model Fabia and Roomster have been facelifted and fitted with new technology designed to further reduce fuel consumption and CO2 emissions. The most important innovations include a new engine (1.2 TDI CR /75bhp DPf) with common rail (high-pressure direct injection), stop-start technology, energy recuperation and gear recommendation (on a Maxi DOT display).

One of the biggest technological changes in the second-generation GreenLine version is a new three-cylinder turbocharged engine (1.2 TDI CR DPf/55 kW) with a consumption of just 83.1mpg and CO2 emissions of 89g/km for the Fabia Estate

GreenLine II, and 67.3mpg and 109g/km for the Roomster GreenLine II.

As well as CO2 emissions, other contaminant levels have also been reduced. The new engine complies with the EU 5 emission standard that, for diesel engines, has stricter regulations for nitrogen oxides and solid particles. The gear ratios of the car's five-speed transmission are identical to those of the ordinary Fabia and Roomster models fitted with the same engine. As a result, the GreenLine II offers the same responsiveness yet lower consumption.

The key benefits of the stop-start system stand out in busy city traffic. The system operates automatically, directly after the engine starts. If, after some time, the driver stops the vehicle, engages neutral and releases the clutch pedal, the engine switches off automatically. As soon as the driver presses the clutch, the engine starts again immediately. Stop-start makes it possible to save up to 4.2mpg (combined) or up to 7.7mpg in city traffic.

Energy recuperation is another state-of-the-art technology introduced on the new Fabia Estate GreenLine II and Roomster GreenLine II. Effective utilisation of the vehicle's kinetic energy for battery recharging is a simple system that helps to save fuel continuously. The two systems – stop-start and braking energy recovery, work in partnership and, along with other measures, help to make the operation of these new models as environmentally-friendly as possible. The application of the energy recovery system has helped to reduce the CO2 emissions by 2-4 g/km.

Other technologies Škoda is introducing on the GreenLine II models to improve economy are the gear recommendation system, which helps the driver make optimum use of the engine's potential, a lowered and aerodynamically-covered chassis and, last but not least, low-rolling-resistance tyres.

After the long, hard winter, Masterfit offers a ray of early summer sunshine

FOLLOWING the hardest winter most vehicles on the road will have ever experienced, now is the time to check your car is ready to face next season's rigours with MasterFit's value-for-money Summer Safety Check.

The Summer Safety Check offers customers the peace of mind that comes from knowing their car has been visually checked for any defects and signs of trouble ahead by MasterFit's expert technicians. They'll also benefit from having their car's engine oil, screen wash, coolant and brake fluid levels topped up to the optimum level with tyres inflated to the correct pressure.

To make it even better value, MasterFit will also carry out an air conditioning efficiency check. This involves inserting a probe into one of the ventilation ducts while the air conditioning is running to see if the temperatures you select on the dial are reaching the cabin's interior.

What you can be sure of is that air will be fresh as MasterFit is additionally offering each Summer Safety Check customer a cabin pollen filter completely free of charge. Typically costing £21, your Vauxhall MasterFit technician will even fit it at no extra charge.

Andrew Curley of MasterFit commented: "Regular checking of your vehicle's condition in addition to observing service intervals is an essential part of the car ownership experience. With the outstanding value offered by the MasterFit Summer Safety Check with Top Ups, Vauxhall owners have the ideal opportunity to have their car checked by an expert and drive into summer with extra peace of mind."

1,300 car cloning cases are 'tip of the iceberg'

AS CAR Crime Awareness Week (17-23 May) gets underway, police car crime experts are warning that many thousands of 'cloned' cars are still being sold illegally, to genuine buyers, who then stand to lose both their new car and the money they paid for it.

According to ACPO figures*, 1,300 cloned vehicles, worth more than £13million, have been recovered since 2006. Yet, this is likely to be just a tiny proportion of the problem, with over 100,000 stolen blank V5C Registration documents still in circulation, being used to clone stolen vehicles.

Cloning is where criminals use stolen vehicle documents to change the identity of a stolen vehicle to match that of a legitimate vehicle. Such vehicles are then often sold on illegally, to unwitting buyers.

Paul Boddington, founder of CarEnquiry.co.uk, said: "Buyers are at greater risk from cloned cars than ever before and it's clear those cars recovered are just the tip of the iceberg -- today, it really is buyer beware, with established dealers the best way to stay safe."

CarEnquiry.co.uk has pledged to only allow accredited dealers that meet its strict conditions to sell through its online car finding service and will insist all used cars offered carry a certified history check.

Its efforts have the support of Edmund King, AA president, who said: "Car buying is fraught with pitfalls, from rogue traders to car cloning and forged documents. It always pays to shop with your head, not your heart and deal only with those who can deliver you genuine cars, from accredited dealers."

Car Enquiry.co.uk and the ACPO Vehicle Crime Intelligence Service have also issued the following four key steps for Car Crime Awareness Week, to avoid cloned cars:

1 Do not pay in cash - cloners want to be able to disappear quickly with the money and remain anonymous. Instead, use a traceable payment method, such as a credit card or bank draft

2 Check key vehicle details before you buy - cloners don't want buyers to look at the details and spot anomalies in the paperwork or on the vehicle. Check registration number (VRM), chassis number (VIN), along with the V5C serial number and issue date to check if it has been altered in anyway, or it's one of the ones recorded as stolen. Serial numbers for the stolen V5Cs are: BG 8229501-BG 9999030 and BI 2305501-BI 2800000.

3 Do not pay less than 70% of the vehicle's market value - cloners want to shift the car quickly, so will price it as a bargain (half price or even less). Know the market value for the car you're buying and don't be blinded by the 'bargain'

4 View and buy from only an authorised retailer with premises, or purchase from the registered keeper's address - cloners want to remain untraceable and anonymous, to ensure a clean getaway, meeting the buyer in a lay-by, motorway service station or car park. Don't be tempted by any such offer and check the address you visit matches details on the V5C

The 2010 Lexus GS 450H

LEXUS has introduced a series of styling, technical and equipment revisions that further strengthen the full hybrid GS 450h's appeal in the premium saloon market. It has rationalised the model line-up into two equipment grades – SE and SE-L – and introduced new exterior colour choices, alloy wheel designs and interior trims.

The GS, powered by a smooth and ultra-efficient combination of a 3.5-litre petrol V6 and a compact 650V electric motor, delivers sharp performance with fuel economy and emissions that are unmatched by its conventional petrol-powered rivals.

Revised Pre-Crash Safety system and active headrests

The Pre-Crash Safety system in the GS 450h has been revised to include pre-crash brake technology to support the established pre-crash seatbelt and brake assist functions.

Both front seats have new, inflator-operated active headrests, which are activated by a signal from the ECU should the car suffer a rear-end impact. The inflator slides a piston into the headrest, unlocks the mechanism and projects the headrest forwards and upwards to support the head and reduce the risk of whiplash injury.

Navigation and audio upgrades

In common with its sister Lexus models, the GS 450h has a new 40GB hard disc drive (HDD) navigation system, giving Europe-wide coverage with traffic information data capture in each country. The HDD also provides 10GB of storage space for owners to create their own on-board sound library of digital audio files – room for around 2,000 music tracks.

Two audio systems are featured in the GS 450h range: a 10-speaker Lexus premium package and a 14-speaker Mark Levinson Premium Surround Sound System giving 5.1-channel surround sound on selected CDs and DVDs. Both systems come with a USB port and audio jack plug for full connection and integration of portable music players. The Bluetooth, provided as standard, includes an audio streaming function. As an option, owners can upgrade their audio system to receive DAB digital broadcasts.

Styling

The 2010 GS 450h has a new front grille design that features a series of horizontal bars. The hybrid-blue rear lamp clusters have been modified to incorporate larger, transparent outer lenses and a new 18-inch alloy wheel design has been introduced for the SE-L model. The SE version rides on 17-inch alloys, with five-double-spoke 18-inch wheels available in a combined package with parking sensors.

In the cabin there is a new hybrid-blue backlit stop/start button and the choice of a new Venaro Grey semi-aniline leather upholstery option, with contrasting black stitching and grey bird's eye maple wood grain trim.

The range of 11 exterior colours includes three new shades: Vanilla Mist, Richmond Green and Atlantic Blue.

HONITON NETBALL LEAGUE

Division One

TONIGHT Flamings A met Flamings B and the resultant 50-13 win for the A team took them back to the top of the table, whilst the defeat for the B team sent them to the foot of the table. Sarah Clark was the star for the A team who led from the start, and although Flamings B tried hard, with Lisanne King playing well they could not pose a serious challenge for Flamings A.

Wasps had been on top of the table at the start of the evening, but their opponents Keeley's Angels had other ideas. Angels started strongly and were 10-5 ahead at quarter time, and with Cara Monaghan playing well they continued to increase the lead, so that at the start of the final quarter they were 35-22 in front.

In the final session Nicola Field got the Wasps moving and they began to have the better of the play, and although they outscored Angels in the final quarter it was too late, and Angels finished victors by 46-35.

'Visions made it two wins from two outings when they came up against Bo-Peeps. The first quarter went goal for goal with the scores tied at 8-8. In the second quarter Pam Taylor edged 'Visions in front to 16-14. Although Bo-Peeps continued to play well, with Faye Webb once again in great form, they could not get back on terms with 'Visions and had to settle for a point from their 25-34 defeat.

Final game of the night had newly promoted Sidmouth Toucans up against Upwoman, who had suffered a big defeat first time out. Tonight both centres were in fine form. Andrea Britton for Upwoman, and Vicki Russell for the Toucans. The game was a close one, with Upwoman edging 9-7 up in the first period. Their lead had increased by a goal to 14-11 at half way, but with Toucans clawing that goal back in the third period so that going into the final quarter it was all to play for, with Upwoman 20-18 to the good. The final session saw Upwoman hold off a strong Sidmouth challenge to win by 29-23.

Division Two

ALTHOUGH two games were scheduled for tonight only one took place as JD Tyres were unable to field a side for their match against Bampton.

This had an impact upon the division as it meant Bampton were awarded the game and moved to the top of the table on goal difference whilst the deduction of three points for JD sent them to the foot of the table.

The one game that was played tonight saw Complete Meats, looking for a quick return to the top flight, in action against NAS Vehicle Repairs – and it proved to be a good night for NAS. With Sam Ayres in fine form at centre they led from the start, 8-5 up at quarter time and 25-15 going into the final session.

The final quarter was goal for goal and although Jill Partiss worked hard for the Meats they had left it too late and it NAS 29 with Complete Meats scoring 19.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

ON Sunday the main club competed for the Centenary Niblick.

In first place was Andrew Hellier (12) with a nett 68. Second was Shane Brown (15) with a nett 69 and a better back nine than third place Ryan Smith (12) who also scored a nett 69.

In the last week the Seniors have played two inter-club matches, both away and both with a similar result. Firstly at Bridport, always a tough encounter the home club avenged last year's result with a comprehensive 5-1 victory.

In all but one match the visitors were conceding strokes to their opponents, a distinct advantage to the home side. Axe Cliff sole winners were Malcolm Glass/John W White.

On Monday Cheddington inflicted a similar defeat on the team with Axe Cliff's win coming from Terry Jessop/Hugh Willis.

On Friday the May Medal took place and despite the cold north easterly the scores were surprisingly good. The winner with 38 points was Brian Wilkes (12) with Norman Bowlers (22) on 37 points. Two players notched 36 points and third place on countback went to Rob Grove (17) with Chris Walker (13) the players to miss out on the prizes.

Ladies' Section

ANOTHER very chilly Wednesday found the Ladies playing a Foursomes competition to qualify for the Express & Echo Shield and also for the veterans' Killard Levy Trophy.

The winners for the Express & Echo were Mary Gippis (36) and Hazel Williamson (26) with 36 points. Runners-up were Margaret Brown (28) and Janet Dack (27) with 32 points. Janet and Margaret will represent Axe Cliff for the Killard Levy Trophy at Tavistock in September.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

County Golfer Challenge Medal

THE Medal games seem to be coming thick and fast lately. I suppose it's so we are all up to speed with authentic handicaps for the Club's Cup competitions but my own game just seems to be going backwards.

Surprisingly there was a real cold bite in the air that made you return to Winter mittens between shots. There was an added incentive to do well this time too as County Golfer Magazine had arranged for Brittany Ferries to hand out vouchers to the three top players.

It was nice to see that they were shared round the two divisions with the overall winner coming from Div 1. Dave Carnall shot a net 64 to win the day and £150 worth of Brittany Ferries Vouchers to spend at his leisure. Dan Noar was second, again from Div 1, with a net 65 and £100 pounds worth of vouchers. Buzz Harris in Div 2 shot a net 67 and got £50 worth of vouchers for his trouble. All in all an interesting challenge and very decent prizes.

Fitch Trophy

SATURDAY members played the annual Fitch Trophy, foursomes Stableford, for married couples only.

In a biting wind some did not complete the 18 holes. The winners of the fitch ham which is traditionally the 1st prize were Olwen and Bill Eaton with 36pts, 2nd were Jackie and Alan Seager with 35pts and 3rd place were Jan and John Dickinson with 34pts.

Tuesday Mixed

FORTY SIX members played the very popular Treble Six competition. This week we had the company of our Country Members who were re-newing old friendships.

The scores were all very close but in 1st place were Lady vice-captain Sue Ritchie and Terry Lindsell with 42pts. 2nd - Olwen Eaton and Richard Pyle with 41pts. 3rd - Jackie Seager and Max Pipe 40pts. on c/b. 4th - Dot Grove and Peter Shepherd 40pts. 5th - Andrea Squire and Mike Watts 40pts.

Ladies Section

THIS week was a "double" Stableford Competition. Those members of the County Vets who were eligible for the Killard-Leavey Trophy Qualifier and the younger members playing a Stableford alongside.

The Stableford competition was won by Lady vice-captain Sue Ritchie and Henrietta Bradshaw with 35pts, 2nd - Rosemary Greenhorn and Dot Grove with 34pts, 3rd - Linda Blundell and Carol Cole - 33pts on c/b from Chris Luttman and Stella Ford.

The Killard-Leavey Trophy winners were Rosemary Greenhorn and Dot Grove with 34pts. Runners-up were President Anne Davies and Olive Pope with 33pts. Rosemary and Dot will play at Tavistock representing the Club in September.

AROUND THE BOWLS CLUBS - NEWS AND RESULTS

CHARDSTOCK

WITH two games at home and four away in 11 days, and victory in five, with one defeat the season has begun well.

In a four rink home fixture against Charmouth on Sunday 2nd May, with the weather cold and damp at times, Chardstock shared the spoils 2 rinks each, but victory overall by four shots, and a score of 79-75 shots. P. Baldwin, R. Wines, J. Bodily, N. Denslow (skip) lost 17-19, B. Albon, C. Bradford, D. Emery K. Wakelin (Skip) lost 11-21, T. Bird, Mrs M. Davenport, M. Davenport, J. Tucker (Skip) won 24-18, A. Callagan, R. Blackmore, P. Compton, S. Jeffery (skip) won 27-17.

On Tuesday 4th May, many friendships were renewed in a fixture which members of both clubs always look forward to, when Chardstock travelled to Feniton for a 4-rink mixed game. Chardstock were in good form and secured victory by 3 rinks to 1, and overall by 87-57 shots. T. Bird, B. Howard, K. Warren, S. Jeffery (Skip) won 28-10, A. Callagan.

S. Dando, J. Bartholomew, N. Denslow (Skip) won 24-10, C. Bradford, J. Bodily, M. Davenport, J. Rolph (skip) won 22-13, R. Wines, D. Emery, A. Day, P. Compton (Skip) lost 13-24.

A visit to the seaside, and a firm favourite with the mens' team of both clubs, when Lyme Regis was the venue for a 4-rink match on Wednesday 5th May. Although the weather remained dry and cool, a great match was played and enjoyed on superbly prepared greens.

Several players from both clubs shared company, who met regularly indoors at Cloakham Lawns during the winter months. Chardstock again played very well, winning on all rinks, and by an overall score of 88-53 shots. D. Wood, G. Bodily, K. Warren, M. Davenport (Skip) won 25-12, J. Marks, R. Wines, J. Rolph, N. Denslow (Skip) won 23-12, P. Potter, T. Payne, J. Bartholomew, K. Wakelin (skip) won 20-16, T. Bird, J. Smith, A. Day, M. Toms (skip) won 20-13.

A trip to Wellington on Friday 7th May for a 4-rink mixed game was the icing on the cake. Winning on three rinks and losing by only three shots on the 4th, Chardstock won convincingly by 80-58 shots. J. Bodily, A. Callagan, A. Day, K. Wakelin (skip) won 23-13, P. Potter, J. Marks, A. Sebright, M. Davenport (skip) won 21-13, P. Baldwin, Mrs M. Davenport, G. Bodily, N. Denslow (skip) won 21-14, T. Bird, B. Howard, D. Emery, P. Compton (skip) lost 15-18.

The Seaton mens' team were the visitors on Monday, May 10th for a four triples match with Chardstock winning three rinks and losing by only four shots on the fourth, and victory overall by 71-57 shots.

The final match of the six played recently saw Chardstock tumble to defeat away to Donyatt in a four triples match by 3 rinks to 1, and overall by 48-78 shots.

HONITON with Tony Broughton

FIRST game this week was a win over the St Andrews touring side from Weston-Super-Mare. A tight fought match and after a shaky start at 10-11 down at tea, Dulcie Broughton's rink of Ken Clarke, Berry Maynard and Gerry Dommett came out to finish a convincing 29-11 Top Rink.

Our home match against Tiverton West End was a win of 77-68. We had two winning rinks and two losing. Our top rink was Tony Trembeth, Anne Newman who came over from Sidmouth this season, George Hoare and Gerry Dommett with 26-11. Tuesday the Two Counties League side went to Ottery St Mary and came away with 8.5 points from 10.

Two winning rinks, one drew and one lost with an overall shot victory of three shots. Our top rink that day was Bill Sheerman, Paul Crockett, Eddie Sharman and Ken Large, another good result.

Saturday in a second Two Counties League match at home against Culm Vale we managed only 2 points from 10 by winning on two rinks and losing on the other two and losing the match by 6 shots. For some reason the whole side was re-hashed with a somewhat disastrous affect.

In near freezing conditions our ladies started their year well with a 3-1 victory over their old rivals, Seaton, in the National Top Club Competition, Seaton beat us in this last year.

This is a strange competition because there are only four disciplines, Singles, Pairs, Triples and Fours, so a draw is possible. If it is a draw, then shots scored are counted. If that's a draw then the Pairs, Triples and Fours play an extra end to find a winning side.

This year Carole Binmore beat Chris McDonald 21-16, in a very hard match that Chris, who played well, had lead most of the way. Yvonne Rayner and Shirley Hiscocks won the pairs 22-13. Rita Barwick, Anne Hillyear and Brenda Harris won the triples 12-11 and the fours, Rosemary Hiron, Dulcie Broughton, Joan Heard and Sue Evans lost 12-25.

This looks like a bad result for the fours but in my opinion Barbara Harden, the Seaton skip, was the lady of the match, not only saving her team on many occasions but doing some spectacular conversions, well done Barbara.

It was nice to see Olive Blunden again supporting the Seaton side. Olive, who will not mind me telling you is well into her eighties now was once one of East Devon's top players. She played many years as a lead in the Johns Trophy and if memory server me right I don't think her rink ever lost.

Rita Barwick did well in her first round tie of the County Over 55 Singles beating a much fancied Eileen Bagley from Topsham, well done Rita.

Over 60s League this week turned out the same results as last week. Eight points each at home for the C side playing Okehampton and the A side playing Axminster but zero for the B side that played away at Starcross.

In fairness the B side have had some very tough matches and have narrowly lost each time but hopefully the tide will turn soon, it needs to, because I think this will put them bottom of the table.

It is a tradition that Honiton host the first two rounds of the Section 3 Men's County Triples Competition and that started this Sunday. Played at times in some appalling weather two Honiton Teams have made it through to next Sunday and the semi-finals. First through was Fred Cowey, Dennis Hillyear and Mike Sellick and second Bill Sheerman, Ken Clarke and Tony Broughton.

Don Russell and Tony Broughton also had a good first round win on Friday against an Ottery pair in the County Un-badged Pairs. They will travel to Axminster for the next round.

SEATON with Ted Harden

ON 10th May Seaton lost a triples match against Chardstock by 57shots to 71. Top rink Keith Harris, Jeremy Allison and James Derbyshire.

On 11th May the Club lost to Heavitree by 96 shots to 105. Top rink Doris Prichard, Tony Johnson, David Yardley and John Wright. On 13th May Seaton ladies Beat Madiera ladies by 58 shots to 51. Top rink Ann Wright, Barbara Thompson, Marian Vessey and Joan Miles.

In the over sixties league on 12th May Seaton beat Budleigh Salterton 'C' by 45 shots to 26 (Top rink Alan Wood, Ivor Steer and Ron Rowley.

In their opening game in the new mixed Two Counties League the Club beat Ottery St. Mart by 100 shots to 61, winning on three rinks and drawing one. Top rink Peter Newton, Ray Thompson, John Wright and Ray McDonald.

FENITON with Roger Smith

FENITON played host to South Molton and in a very close contest lost by 88-98 despite winning four of the six rinks. The winning rinks for Feniton were L. Crook, G. Phillips and S. Kury 14-11, N. Cox, E. Tuck and K. Lovering 21-13, T. Pyle, R. Veitch and R. Clarke 14-12 and P. Usher, R. Cooke and A. Kury 20-14.

Feniton Ladies travelled to Chardstock and in a two rink match lost by 25-36. The winning rink was A. Pritchard, J. Skinner, J. Smith and L. Eveleigh 20-9.

In the over 60s men's triples league the B team maintained their excellent start to the season gaining 7 points against Tiverton West End B winning by 36-13. The winning rink was F. Brooks, T. Young and L. Ley 18-13. The second rink of J. Dibble, D. Conbeer and R. Clarke tied 18-18. The A team continue to struggle losing to Exonia C by 21-41, neither rink managing to secure any points.

The mixed team had a good day against visitors Chagford winning by 97-38. All four rinks won.

The scores were G. Blackmore, A. Smith and R. North 24-8, G. Smith, L. Ley and P. Edmonds 30-10, J. Dibble, G. North and M. Eveleigh 27-5 and E. Goodenough, L. Eveleigh and D. Conbeer 21-13.

FOOTBALL RESULTS, FIXTURES AND TABLES

Devon & Exeter League

LESS than 20 years after re-inventing their village team Thorvorton created history this week when they were crowned Premier champions for the first time ever.

The Thors who rejoined the league in 1991 after almost a decade without a village team have gone from strength to strength. This week saw them win the Premier title with a 1-0 victory at Willand.

The other major headline was at Sidmouth Town where the battle for runners up spot and the Harry Wood trophy was decisively finished by the vikings who trounced Topsham Town 6-0. Double strikes from Chris Duchenski, Nick Pearce and David Crisp shattered the Tops and blew away their dream of a return to Peninsular league football. Sidmouth were still a bit disappointed not to have won the title they last won 42 years ago, but they have enjoyed a brilliant season.

Seaton Town play Budleigh Salterton in the Seaton cup final on thursday, the Carlisle final is on friday at Seaton between holders Colaton Raleigh and the host club.

SECOND RUNFEST A GREAT SUCCESS

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter
LAST year Jon Day came up with the idea of a Runfest – a whole weekend of running for all the family. One year on and what a weekend the second Runfest was.

About 25 runners ran up to 38 miles on the nine social runs over three days, ranging from 3 to 14 miles on routes not generally used by our other events. In between Fun on the Run was Fun in the Campsite, to whit Manor Farm and much use was made of the barbecue and barrel of Branoc. Running was what brought the runners together but far from the whole story of a fantastic weekend.

Chris Keefe was the first AVR home in last Wednesday's Yeovil 3K summer series race, he was 24th in 18:34. Harry Moore was the only other AVR runner; he was 143rd in 41:15. Harry also ran in Sunday's Ottery 10K race where he took the over 70 title and won a bottle of bubbly for being the oldest runner.

On Wednesday lunchtime, Dawn Potter made a last minute decision to compete in that evenings Purbeck 10K in Wareham. It turned out to be a great choice as later, in the chilly and initially damp weather, Dawn stormed around the course in 50:44 which smashed her PB for 10K by well over six minutes. She now has the 50 minute barrier in her sights.

Luke Reed took part in the Taunton Deane Sprint Triathlon, the event comprised of a 400m pool swim, 22k bike and a 5k run. Luke was very pleased to finish 21st overall out of 300 competitors with splits of 7:32 for the swim 40:01 for the bike and 19:05 for the run giving him an overall time of 1:08:17 including transitions. Former Axe Valley Runner Richard Easton also took part in the race finishing 2nd overall in a very swift time of 1:02:10.

There was a fantastic 24 four man teams at the latest Woodland Relay race hosted by AVR at Morganhayes Woods last week. This is a summer series between AVR, Honiton, Sidmouth and the Met Office running clubs. Garry Perratt has designed a 1.8 mile loop that descended, evened off then rose to the woodland heavens almost vertically.

The worst bit was the final flat and straight 200 metre section that turned tired legs wobbly and lungs to bursting point. Most finished with eyes on stalks six inches out from their face with a zombie like expression that gradually wore off.

For the lead teams it was a very close race with Sidmouth's Matthew Szala posting the fastest lap of the evening, 10:37, heading off AVR's Garry Perratt by 13 seconds. Off roared Chris Keefe in pursuit of Guy Bennet and overhauled him to give AVR the lead, could Jon Day hold off Ben Chesters? It was close, but Alex Todd was just ahead of Graham Hill at the start. He smoothly pulled away to give victory to the AVR Senior Men in 45:19, with Sidmouth Senior Men 2nd, 45:50 and Honiton Men's A 3rd, 47:40.

Honiton A won the ladies race with Fran Bond, Ceri Oak, Judy Davey and Jill Harrison completing in 53:31. It was very close in the Junior race, with Honiton Juniors Reuben Heeler-Frood, Jake Harvey, Joe and Sam Urquhart finishing in 54:22, just three seconds ahead of the AVR Juniors Matthew Morbey, Ellis Bee, James Sibley and James Hansford.

Many thanks to Garry and chums for putting on a very good event, so now we look forward to the next round on Monday July 12th.

HONITON RUNNERS

MANY runners were pleased to see The Black Death run at Combe Sydenham Park return after a 2 year sabbatical.

It is somewhat on the edge of Honiton's catchment for events, but 4 club members took part in this 10 mile off road run on the edge of Exmoor. It's a hilly run mainly along woodland tracks, with the occasional really scenic view. Event times are quite a lot different from what people recorded on their own watches – generally event times around three minutes slow.

Bruce Strawbridge was beaming at the finish, not so much with a great time of 1:30.34 to come in 45th, but because at last he was back to running on the surface and type of terrain he most enjoys. Simon Hall was also really pleased with 1:51.04 and 138th, as it exorcised some of his London marathon demons, and after an enforced lay off since then, is finally optimistic of being able to start Edinburgh in a couple of weeks. His plan was to go really steady, but he got fed up with that during the first long hill and went past Claire Pomeroy and Tony Whiteley. Claire did pull back some time during the long descent at the end to finish in 1:58.05 and 159th. Tony started steadily but found some of the rough descents hard to negotiate, but still came in respectfully at 2:11.12 in 196th. Winner Mark Hopkinson finished in 1:07.24, or around 7 minute miling, and a good two minutes clear of the next runner - phenomenal for the amount of climbing in the distance.

Meanwhile, Nick Bradley-Carter was also in Somerset running the Curry Mallet 10k which had a much smaller field of runners. Nick had a brilliant run securing a new personal best time of 47:49 which gave him 3rd place in his age category. Milan Gok, who has recently moved away from Honiton, won the race in a time of just over 37 minutes which was a new personal best for him too.

The first Woodland Relay race of the year took place at Morganhayes, Nr Colyton this week. This was organised by Axe Valley Runners and 24 teams of 4 from Honiton, AVR, The Met Office and Sidmouth took part. Some runners managed to take in some of the woodland scenery which was particularly sensual as the bluebells were in abundance. Others ran blinkered concentrating only on the mission ahead.

AVR men won the overall event and Honiton ladies made up of Fran Bond, Judy Davey, Ceri Oak and Jill Harrison took the first ladies' team slot. Honiton also won the junior prize. The team was made up of Sam and Joe Urquhart, Jake Harvey and Reuben Heeler-Frood. Honiton men's first team came 3rd overall. Tim Legg, Kevin Hawker, Richard Harvey and Brian Charters made up this team.

Other runners taking part from Honiton included; Steve Davey, Brent Dicks, Tony Whiteley, Richard Harris, Katie Davey, Kieran Anderson, Sophie Keywood, Iain Ross, Dougie Keywood, Harry Whiteley, Jill Wood and Pippa Westall. Thanks to AVR for the organisation, Warren Oak who organised the teams and John Burgess who supervised them and provided much needed support on the evening.

Wednesday saw the 2nd in the Yeovilton 5k series and 6 runners bravely left Honiton in the rain, saw completely dry roads on route but found it was pouring down at Yeovilton. Many runners who have been competing in this series for years commented that they had never had to run it in those conditions. It was quickly obvious that personal bests were out of the question as runners not only had to contend with the weather and the resultant puddles but there was also a substantial stretch of roadworks which runners had to negotiate twice.

Tim Legg was first in for Honiton in 17:52 and 14th place followed 1 place and 18 seconds later by Brian Charters. Steve Davey was next home 64th in 21:03 with Roger Saunders hot on his heels for the entire race. Roger came 69th in 21:16. Judy could see them both for the whole race and was happy to use them as pacers. She was pleased to finish 40 seconds quicker than last month 76th in 21:42. Brent Dicks had been re-roofing his house all day and having done physical work for a change found himself very tired and was ok about finishing in 22:55 and 94th albeit slower than last month. He's got to go some to touch his pb by the end of the summer. There were 143 runners.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Feniton Falcons U10s 4 Colyton U9s 0

A HAT-TRICK from Oscar Walsh and a goal from Ben Cathcart gave Feniton the points.

Colyton battled hard throughout and certainly didn't make life easy for the Falcons.

Man of the match went to Walsh for his contributions in midfield and defence, as well as his goals.

Seaton Town A 1 Lyme Regis 3

SEATON Town, the cup winners from last year met up with this year's league winners Lyme Regis to play in the under 10 cup final on Sunday at Ackland Park Feniton.

Seaton started well and it wasn't long before Sam Sparkes found the back of the net to put Seaton in the lead at 1-0. Lyme came back strong and equalised soon after.

The rain lashed down and play was hard for both sides. With only seven players allowed on pitch Seaton ensured that no player was left out.

All of the squad gave 100 percent effort. But a couple of errors saw Lyme fight back and score two more goals to make the final score 3-1.

Man-of-the-Match for Seaton was Lewis Franklin who was tireless in defence. Ricky Littley was again superb in goal.

The team have two more games until the end of the season away at Exmouth (tomorrow) May 19th and home to Honiton on May 23rd.

Triathlon popularity growing

THE Exe Valley Triathlon is building a reputation as one of the best events of its type in the South-West. It is staged at the Tiverton Leisure centre and is superbly organised by the Exeter Tri club.

The event formula is a swim of 400 hundred metres, a cycle ride of 24 km and finally a 5km run and this year attracted some of the countries top stars including race winner Harry Witshire who is the World Student games champion and GB athlete whose winning time was an incredible 57 minutes 37 seconds.

The 'N1 tri club' has now been in existence for a year and the 14 members who entered this race delivered a simply stunning list of performances and results.

Turning first to the Ladies, the star turn of the day was by Kerri-ann Upham. In her first ever triathlon race she was 2nd in her age category and 3rd placed woman overall in a time of 1:19:43.

Other 'podium performances' were delivered by Jane Beech who was delighted with 2nd in her category and 5th overall woman. Liz Elliott came 2nd in her category as did Vanessa Glyn-Jones in hers.

Well done to Suzanne Lyus, Sue Southgate and Ali Davies all who did themselves proud competing in a triathlon for the first time.

The men also did well. Tom Elliott mixed it with the professionals finishing 6th in his age category and a fantastic 8th overall in the race in a time of 1:07:17. Ben Mathews broke training from his forthcoming charity bike ride across Canada to finish 18th in the same category and 26th overall.

Kevin Wood who is in training for an "Iron man race" smashed his last years time by 14 minutes and was 9th in his category.

Robert Brown, cycling superbly, was 19th in this group. Nigel Down is also training for 'long events' and was greatly encouraged by his overall performance in this 'Sprint event'. Richard Warner competing in his first ever Triathlon offers real promise for the future. Dennis Elliott was another club podium performer, 3rd in his category.

The N1 tri club has members of all ages and ability levels and stages training events all over East Devon including cycling events, swimming sessions in pools and in the sea and a running programme-it has an active social life too.

Honiton gymnasts dominate regional preparation grades

HONITON gymnasts proved that they're the best in the south west, taking more golds, silvers and bronzes than any other club at the regional preparation grades competition in Sherbourne, Dorset.

The up-and-coming club brought home a total of four golds, three silvers, and two bronzes, taking medals in every category its gymnasts entered.

Rising stars Jasmine Waterfield and Emma Tipton showed their promise for the future, not only clinching the gold medal in their category – prep B girls pairs – but also scoring the highest score of the whole competition. They were closely followed by Emma Saunders and Sharna Curley, who came second, just 0.15 behind. And these weren't the only successes for Honiton. More golds came from Prep A mixed pair Josh Cox and Sharna Curley, Prep B boys' pair Josh Cox and Matt Simpson, and novice trio Kaisha Dessalines-Wright, Charlotte Drawer and Saffy Herbert.

Club coach Hannah Dacre said: "It was a proud moment for everyone involved in Honiton Gym Club, as one after another our gymnasts were announced winners. Jasmine and Emma put in a particularly impressive performance, and beat off opposition from 24 other girls' pairs, while Josh Cox was in top form, coming away with two first places.

This was the first time a 'novice trio' category had been held, and Honiton's Kaisha Dessalines-Wright, Charlotte Drawer and Saffy Herbert made sure they took the inaugural award, finishing more than a full mark ahead of their nearest rivals.

The reward for the medal-winning gymnasts is a place in the inter-regional finals in Southampton, where they will compete against the best from other regions in the UK.
